Baldridge Is Found Guilty And Now Faces Prison Term

Jury's Verdict First Degree Manslaughter

After a trial lasting eight days, George S. Baldridge today faces a prison term for the shotgun killing of Game Protector Irvin J. Patrick o: Nov. 15, while the officer was engaged in performing his duties as an officer of the law.

Baldridge was found guilty of first degree manslaughter, although he had been indicted on a second degree murder charge.

Judge John Case announced at 1:30 P. M. Thursday that he had set 10:30 A M. Friday for "considering judgement and sentence and any other matters which the defendant (Baldridge) may desire to present at that time."

This statement by Judge Case indicates that Baldridge will be sentenced at that time. The "any other matters" referred to by Judge Case could include a motion for a new trial, application for bond and an application for a stay of execution.

Judge Case did not speculate on any of these possibilities, however, and let his statement stand for itself.

The consensus among attorneys is that if a notice of appeal is filed by Baldridge's attorneys it probably would come later, after a motion for a new trial is heard and acted on.

First degree manslaughter conviction carries a penalty of one to 20 years in the Ohio Penitentiary; second degree murder conviction carries life imprisonment penalty.

The verdict of the jury of four women and eight men was announced at 10:35 P. M. Wednesday, after the jurors had deliverated approximately seven hours and 30 minutes.

The verdict came after the jury at 9:30 P. M. had sent word to Judge John P. Case, asking if he would read to the jury that part of his charge relating to first degree manslaughter.

After conferring with counsel on both sides, Judge Case called the jury in at 9:52 P. M. and read the entire portion of his charge, consisting of several pages, dealing with a verdict on first degree manslaughter, after which the jury retired, and at 10:30 announced it was ready to report.

WHEN THE JURY was brought into the court room to give its verdict, Judge Case first commended the spectators for their cooperation during the trial and stated that the court would expect this cooperation to continue. No noise would be tolerated as the proceedings progressed he said and added that there must be absolute quiet. His admonition was adhered to strictly by the spectators when the verdict was announced.

A crowd of some 300 persons had waited for hours for the jury's report, and as many as possible filled the seats in the courtroom, and the others hovered anxiously about the corridor until after the verdict was returned and court adjourned.

When Judge Case asked the jury if it has arrived at a verdict Foreman Donald Lange announced that it had.

The clerk of courts, Mrs. Dorothy West took the verdict and handed it to to Judge Case, who scanned it, then turned it back to the clerk who read it.

It stated that the jury had found George Baldridge guilty of first degree manslaughter.

Baldridge, who was sitting with his attorneys, took the verdict with no show of emotion.

JUDGE CASE expressed appreciation to the jury, after which he asked counsel if either side had anything to say. Prosecutor Bath extended appreciation to the jury for its "service for the good of society."

Defense counsel had nothing to say.

Priest's Eyes Give Sight To Youths

MILAN, Italy (AP) — A second young Italian could see again today through the eyes of a dead priest.

She is 18-year-old Amabile Battistella, who lost her sight as the result of an illness when a child.

Before Father Carlo Gnocchi, 54, died Feb. 28 he had asked that his eyes be used in an effort to restore sight to blind children.

One of the priest's corneas was transplanted to Angelo Colagrande, 12, blinded five years ago by quicklime.

Heavy Rainfall Is Recorded Thursday

The heavy rain was followed by a drop of 40 degrees in temperature within a period of some 14 hours or less. An unusually loud drop in such a short time.

Following the rain and cold, a series of small blizzards, or snow squalls, raged late in the night and well into Thursday.

Spring-like Weather Ended by Cold Blast

(By The Associated Press)

A brief spell of spring-like weather in most of the eastern half of the nation appeared ended today with a blast of cold air and snow and rain.

The icy air moved over the eastern and southern plains eastward to the Appalachians, dropping temperatures more than 30 degrees in Texas and as much as 40 degrees in the Ohio Valley.

Snow fell in the upper Mississippi Valley, the upper Great Lakes region and western sections of the Ohio Valley. Rain or freezing rain hit the lower Great Lakes section, New England, the eastern Ohio Valley and in Alabama.

Heaviest snowfalls were in the Midwest with 7 inches reported in Wausau, Wis., and Pellston, Mich., since yesterday.

Although only light rain fell in most Northeast sections, some flooding was reported in parts of New York and Pennsylvania. In New York flash floods closed highways out of Corning and U. S. 20 west of Albany yesterday. Conditions were described as "progressively more serious" in south central New York.

Minor flooding was reported in northwest Pennsylvania along the Allegheny River and in the northeast along the Susquehanna River.

The Ohio highway department reported many secondary Ohio Highways closed by high water in the wake of yesterday's heavy rainstorms.

The Ohio turnpike was reported wet in the east portion and slippery in spots in the west portion.

The Ohio River, rising rapidly after two days of rain, is expected to flood lowlands in the East Liverpool area by tomorrow night.

A crest of 36 to 37 feet, four to five feet over flood stage, was predicted for 7 p. m. The river stood at 26.3 feet at 7 a. m. today, and was rising from .3 to .6 of a foot hourly.

From past experience, a 37-foot crest would not cause major damage, but would force evacuation of many families, probably about 125 in New Cumberland, W. Va., and another 75 in Stratton, Port Homer and Empire, Ohio, downstream from East Liverpool.

Some roads would be closed.

The last flood in that area was in 1954, when the river rose to 42.5 feet. Army engineers have built retaining reservoirs upstream since the disastrous flood of 1936, when the river crested at more than 51 feet here.

The area received two inches of rain in four days, including nearly an inch since 7 a. m. yesterday. It turned cold this morning with a few snow flurries.

Other Ohio River predicted crests and the time they will be attained included:

Pt. Pleasant, 43½ to 44½ at p. m. Sunday. Flood stage is 40.

Gallipolis, 48-49 feet 4 p. m. Sunday, flood is 50.

Dam 29, above Ashland, Ky., 53½-54½ at 10 p.m. Sunday. Flood stage is 51.

Greenup, 54-55 feet at midnight Sunday. Flood is 52.

Dam 15, south of Wheeling, 38-39 feet (flood 37) Saturday afternoon

Marietta, 38 feet at 7 p. m. Saturday (flood 35).

Parkersburg 38 at midnight Saturday (flood is 36).

Pittsburgh, crest of 26-27 feet there at noon tomorrow. Flood stage is 25.

STRIKE END PLAN HIT

Farm Bill Showdown Now Near

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's day of decision on an election year farm bill arrived today with critics accusing the Eisenhower administration of "pressure" and "political maneuvering."

Not so, said Sen. Aiken (R-Vt), leading a touch-and-go fight for retention of the administration-backed system of flexible farm price supports. Declaring that no improper pressures are being exerted, Aiken said:

"Of course the proponents of a sound farm program are doing everything possible to get a good bill. We are doing all we can and I am confident that we will win."

Chairman Ellender (D-La) of the Senate Agriculture Committee, floor manager for the bill which would scrap the administration price supports in favor of a return to rigid props, countered that "I still believe we have the votes."

Ellender said that the White House and the Agriculture Department "are wielding a lot of pressure on this test, particularly on cotton area senators."

Debate on the bill, largely along party lines, has been going on for nearly three weeks. At a session which lasted until after 11 p. m. yesterday, Senators Holland (D-Fla) and Monroney (D-Okla) exchanged sharp words over the Communist party stand on farm programs.

The Senate has agreed to limit debate today to two hours on each amendment, of which more than 70 have been offered. Ellender has been pushing for final action by week's end.

There is no major dispute over the bill's provision of a soil bank, the administration's big 1956 recommendation. This contemplates paying subsidies to farmers who voluntarily take out of production land they otherwise would plant to crops already in surplus.

The big decision is that on price supports. Barring a switch in tactics, it may come first.

Sen. Anderson (D - NM) has moved to strike out of the bill a section calling for a return to price supports on wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanuts at 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a legal standard said to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

Under the present system, these prices are supported at between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, depending upon the size of available stocks.

Ellender and most other Democrats are urging restoration of 90 per cent supports, the World War II level.

The dispute between Monroney and Holland, one of the few Democrats backing the administration on the issue, followed Holland's statement that the Communist party favors 100 per cent of parity on all farm production. He said the National Farmers Union does too, perhaps without knowledge of the Communist stand.

Monroney retorted that most progressive legislation, no matter who sponsors it, is "aped and copied by the Communist party." He voiced surprise that Holland should make such a comparison.

Holland described his price supports as "crutches," and said demands for complete government farm price protection are "the essence of socialism, a red flag of warning."

Aiken said today there have been "some false rumors that the President has been telephoning some senators about the bill."

"I checked this and my information is that he has not called a single senator," Aiken said. "They all know his views as do the farmers and the public."

FBI Arrests Thug Suspect In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI arrested a patient in a Bronx hospital last night and accused him of being the daring gunman who staged the $188,000 robbery last Friday of a suburban bank.

Federal agents said they recovered $100,000 of the loot from the trunk of a car belonging to the prisoner, Arthur L. Paisnuer, 33, a Bronx racehorse trainer.

Paisnuer and a still-sought companion allegedly kidnaped a woman teller of the County Trust Co.'s drive-in branch at Port Chester.

Before the bank opened Friday, they forced the teller, Mrs. Mary Kostolos, to open the bank with her key. Then one man took over inside. The FBI says it was Paisnuer.

The other man disappeared. The FBI said they were seeking him and the missing $88,000 in cash.

No shots were fired during the holdup.

After getting inside the bank, the gunman bound and blindfolded Mrs. Kostolos and put her in a closet.

When teller Ernest Marino arrived, he too was trussed up. J. Purdy Ungemack, the assistant treasurer, arrived a few minutes later, and was forced to open the vault and carry moneyloaded containers to Mrs. Kostolos' car parked at the curb. The car was found later in a parking lot.

Jury Clears Polish DP In Police Case

AKRON (AP)—Stanislaw Kiszycki, a 150-pound Polish displaced person who battled five policemen in Greyhound terminal here Christmas morning, was cleared by a jury yesterday of charges he resisted arrest.

The jury of five men and seven women deliberated an hour and 40 minutes after hearing how the fracas started because Patrolman Harold Ward tried to put Kiszycki out of the bus station.

Kiszycki had walked 11 miles from Wadsworth, where he is employed as a grinder. He went to the bus station to sleep while waiting to go to early mass at St. Bernard's Roman Catholic church across the street.

When he was unable to produce a bus ticket and unable to make himself understood, Kiszycki was arrested for loitering, but without the use of undue force, police witnesses testified.

But Miss Bessie Dick, a bus station waitress, testified Patrolman Ward punched Kiszycki in the face while he was sleeping.

Mayor Don Merriman of Wadsworth, who headed a citizens' committee which helped Kiszycki's defense, testified the defendant had bruises on "both sides of his face."

"Very much surprised" that he was given a trial at all and convinced he "wouldn't have had a chance in the old country," Kiszycki marveled at the way the wheels of justice turn here.

Beating Is Fatal To Cincy Woman

CINCINNATI (AP)—Mrs. Blanche Spaulding, 75, died in Jewish Hospital last night of injuries apparently suffered in a beating.

Police said they had taken the elderly woman's son, Harold Hoover, 39, and his wife, Marjorie, 27, into custody for questioning.

Police Sgt. Walter Chelson said Hoover told him his wife beat Mrs. Spaulding with a metal bread box and a pickle jar after an argument over the older woman's pension check. Patrolmen said Mrs. Spaulding also said she had been beaten by Mrs. Hoover.

Boy's Eating Habits Prove His Undoing

CLEVELAND (AP)—A fondness for hamburgers proved the undoing of a 13-year-old boy who broke into a neighbor's house and stole a .22 caliber rifle.

While there, he raided the icebox and fried a hamburger for himself.

Knowing the boy's eating habits, the neighbors literally sniffed out the identity of the thief. Juvenile Court Judge Albert A. Woldman said today in ordering the boy held for mental tests.

Small Warships Sought At Wedding

MONTE CARLO (AP)—The government of Monaco has asked the United States, France, Italy and Britain to send warships (but small ones) for the marriage of Prince Rainier and Grace Kelly.

The small harbor of the principality can hardly hold a good sized yacht, officials of Monaco said. They would be quite happy if the four invited navies would send along something like a small destroyer or escort craft

IUE Chieftains Unanimous In Rejecting Deal

Walkout Appears Sure To Continue; Parley With Mediator Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Continuation of the Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike, already 144 days old, appeared certain today as the union turned down a government proposed plan for settlement.

James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), said the decision by the 75-member conference board of the union was unanimous.

Carey said he expected to meet today with Federal Mediation Service Director Joseph Finnegan to discuss what steps might be taken toward further negotiations with the Westinghouse Corp.

The company had accepted the settlement plan proposed by a threeman mediation service panel. The panel has now disbanded, saying that its job ended when it came up with its recommendations.

Carey criticized panel members, saying they had met with Westinghouse President G. A. Price and various company plant managers Friday night while the panel drafted its proposed peace terms. He said no such consultation had taken place with IUE representatives.

"IT IS THE first time in labor history, I believe, that one party and not the other was consulted in a situation of this kind," Carey said.

He added that he and the union still had a "high regard" for the mediation service and the members of the panel.

Carey said the motion adopted by the union's conference board, turning down the government plan, said there were a number of recommendations in its acceptable to the union, but several "including those regarding production standards and wage payment plans which are not clear."

Carey said the company has not given the union sufficient safeguards against possible loss of wages and work opportunity for workers in the event of a shift from an incentive rate of pay to a straight day or hourly pay basis.

He said some 30,000 Westinghouse workers stood to lose as much as 50 cents an hour or more pay on this particular issue.

Carey had indicated major objections to the package settlement plan. He wanted 36 strikers, discharged for alleged strike violence, restored to jobs without the arbitration the panel had recommended. The company had agreed to rehire 57 others similarly charged.

Housewife On Sitdown In Zoning Fuss

HAMILTON (AP) — Mrs. Thomas Cooney of Middletown parked herself in a chair yesterday at the office of Butler County Building Commissioner Randell Coning and said she was prepared to stay "six months if necessary" in a zoning dispute.

Mrs. Cooney propped her feet up in another chair and was left in the darkened courthouse when the offices in the building closed last night. She had an overnight case which she said contained a wash cloth, soap, tooth brush and "other essentials."

The fuss was over a building being erected in Dixie Heights, a suburb of Middletown.

Mrs. Cooney claimed that Clinton Centers the builder of the four-room concrete block structure, was going to use it for a store. That, she said, was in violation of the building code.

Building Commissioner Coning said Centers was denied a certificate to build a store but later obtained permission to build a dwelling valued at $3,000.

"Unless he violated the permit by putting in a business, there is nothing we can do," Coning said.

Mrs. Cooney declared, however, that "if we lose out on this we may as well move out and give up our homes." A business structure, she claimed would detract from the value of residential property in the area.

Mrs. Cooney said she represented herself and others and added:

"Nothing will make me leave until we get some action on this matter. My husband is 100 per cent behind me in this."

Dems Say Ike To Shrink Duty

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) believes that President Eisenhower intends to "shrink" the chief executive's office if reelected.

"Any such contraction of the presidency as is contemplated in the Eisenhower proposal," Sparkman said last night, "cannot but upset the balances set up in our Constitution for the preservation of popular government."

Chairman Paul M. Butler of the Democratic National Committee advanced similar arguments in a speech in Louisville, Ky., in which he said Eisenhower's health is a major campaign issue.

Eisenhower said yesterday that if he should ever feel physically unable to carry on the essential duties of the White House, "I won't be there." He did not make clear whether he meant that in such circumstances he would resign or reverse his week-old decision to seek a second term.

SPARKMAN, Democratic vice presidential nominee in 1952, said that Eisenhower is proposing to hand over to associates "functions which lie at the very core of the presidency."

The Democrats chose Sparkman to reply to Eisenhower's nation wide TV last week in which the President explained his second term decision.

Sparkman said that in discussing the medically imposed limits on his activities in any second term, Eisenhower was "quite frankly and openly saying to the country that he can never be a truly fulltime president.

"If a full measure of health is ever needed anywhere, it is needed in the White House.

"Of course the proponents of a sound farm program are doing everything possible to get a good bill. We are doing all we can and I am confident that we will win."

Chairman Ellender (D-La) of the Senate Agriculture Committee, floor manager for the bill which would scrap the administration price supports in favor of a return to rigid props, countered that "I still believe we have the votes."

Ellender said that the White House and the Agriculture Department "are wielding a lot of pressure on this test, particularly on cotton area senators."

Debate on the bill, largely along party lines, has been going on for nearly three weeks. At a session which lasted until after 11 p. m. yesterday, Senators Holland (D-Fla) and Monroney (D-Okla) exchanged sharp words over the Communist party stand on farm programs.

The Senate has agreed to limit debate today to two hours on each amendment, of which more than 70 have been offered. Ellender has been pushing for final action by week's end.

There is no major dispute over the bill's provision of a soil bank, the administration's big 1956 recommendation. This contemplates paying subsidies to farmers who voluntarily take out of production land they otherwise would plant to crops already in surplus.

The big decision is that on price supports. Barring a switch in tactics, it may come first.

Sen. Anderson (D - NM) has moved to strike out of the bill a section calling for a return to price supports on wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanuts at 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a legal standard said to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

Under the present system, these prices are supported at between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, depending upon the size of available stocks.

Ellender and most other Democrats are urging restoration of 90 per cent supports, the World War II level.

The dispute between Monroney and Holland, one of the few Democrats backing the administration on the issue, followed Holland's statement that the Communist party favors 100 per cent of parity on all farm production. He said the National Farmers Union does too, perhaps without knowledge of the Communist stand.

Monroney retorted that most progressive legislation, no matter who sponsors it, is "aped and copied by the Communist party." He voiced surprise that Holland should make such a comparison.

Holland described his price supports as "crutches," and said demands for complete government farm price protection are "the essence of socialism, a red flag of warning."

Aiken said today there have been "some false rumors that the President has been telephoning some senators about the bill."

"I checked this and my information is that he has not called a single senator," Aiken said. "They all know his views as do the farmers and the public."

Harry McGhee Dies in Hospital

President Of Union Stockyards Here

Harry McGhee, 63, president of the Union Stockyards here for many years, died at 11 P. M. Wednesday in Mt. Carmel Hospital in Columbus, where he had been a patient since last Sunday. He had been in failing health for the past four years.

Harry M. Ghee

He was born on a farm near Williamsport where he had lived his entire life.

His business interests were extensive and varied and, because of this broad field of activity, he was widely known and had many friends. He was a large land owner and, despite his many other business interests, he kept in close touch with the farming operations. One of his largest tracts of land was the McGhee Ranch on the Robinson Road; he had disposed of it, however, several years ago.

He was a director of the Farmers National Bank in Williamsport as well as the president of the Washington C. H. Union Stockyards. He drove back and forth to his home in Williamsport every day. He started his career as a farmer and livestock buyer as a young man.

HE WAS A member of the Williamsport Methodist Church, the Elks lodge in Circleville and the American Legion post in New Holland. He served through the first World War with the 332nd infantry Regiment in France and Italy.

He is survived by his widow, the former Miss Dorothy Dickey of Greenfield, a daughter, Mrs. Betty Frazier of Williamsport and three grandchildren.

He also leaves two brothers, George and Ulin of Williamsport, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Metzger of Williamsport and Mrs. Charles Holland of London.

Funeral services are to be held in the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home in Washington C. H. at 2 P. M. Saturday in charge of Rev. C. L. Kirshner of Williamsport, assisted by Rev. Clarence Swearingen of Columbus.

Interment is to be in the Greenfield Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home here after noon Friday.

FBI Arrests Thug Suspect In Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI arrested a patient in a Bronx hospital last night and accused him of being the daring gunman who staged the $188,000 robbery last Friday of a suburban bank.

Federal agents said they recovered $100,000 of the loot from the trunk of a car belonging to the prisoner, Arthur L. Paisnuer, 33, a Bronx racehorse trainer.

Paisnuer and a still-sought companion allegedly kidnaped a woman teller of the County Trust Co.'s drive-in branch at Port Chester.

Before the bank opened Friday, they forced the teller, Mrs. Mary Kostolos, to open the bank with her key. Then one man took over inside. The FBI says it was Paisnuer.

The other man disappeared. The FBI said they were seeking him and the missing $88,000 in cash.

No shots were fired during the holdup.

After getting inside the bank, the gunman bound and blindfolded Mrs. Kostolos and put her in a closet.

When teller Ernest Marino arrived, he too was trussed up. J. Purdy Ungemack, the assistant treasurer, arrived a few minutes later, and was forced to open the vault and carry money-loaded containers to Mrs. Kostolos' car parked at the curb. The car was found later in a parking lot.

Retired Attorney Dies At Age 84

COLUMBUS (AP) — Harry A. Clarke, 84, a retired corporation lawyer, died today at his home. He practiced law in Columbus more than 50 years.

He was graduated by the Washington C. H. High School in 1888 and received his legal training at the University of Cincinnati.

Jury Clears Polish DP In Police Case

AKRON (AP)—Stanislaw Kiszycki, a 150-pound Polish displaced person who battled five policemen in Greyhound terminal here Christmas morning, was cleared by a jury yesterday of charges he resisted arrest.

The jury of five men and seven women deliberated an hour and 40 minutes after hearing how the fracas started because Patrolman Harold Ward tried to put Kiszycki out of the bus station.

Kiszycki had walked 11 miles from Wadsworth, where he is employed as a grinder. He went to the bus station to sleep while waiting to go to early mass at St. Bernard's Roman Catholic church across the street.

When he was unable to produce a bus ticket and unable to make himself understood, Kiszycki was arrested for loitering, but without the use of undue force, police witnesses testified.

But Miss Bessie Dick, a bus station waitress, testified Patrolman Ward punched Kiszycki in the face while he was sleeping.

Mayor Don Merriman of Wadsworth, who headed a citizens' committee which helped Kiszycki's defense, testified the defendant had bruises on "both sides of his face."

"Very much surprised" that he was given a trial at all and convinced he "wouldn't have had a chance in the old country," Kiszycki marveled at the way the wheels of justice turn here.

Beating Is Fatal To Cincy Woman

CINCINNATI (AP)—Mrs. Blanche Spaulding, 75, died in Jewish Hospital last night of injuries apparently suffered in a beating.

Police said they had taken the elderly woman's son, Harold Hoover, 39, and his wife, Marjorie, 27, into custody for questioning.

Police Sgt. Walter chelson said Hoover told him his wife beat Mrs. Spaulding with a metal bread box and a pickle jar after an argument over the older woman's pension check. Patrolmen said Mrs. Spaulding also said she had been beaten by Mrs. Hoover.

IUE Chieftains Unanimous In Rejecting Deal

Walkout Appears Sure To Continue; Parley With Mediator Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Continuation of the Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike, already 144 days old, appeared certain today as the union turned down a government proposed plan for settlement.

James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), said the decision by the 75-member conference board of the union was unanimous.

Carey said he expected to meet today with Federal Mediation Service Director Joseph Finnegan to discuss what steps might be taken toward further negotiations with the Westinghouse Corp.

The company had accepted the settlement plan proposed by a threeman mediation service panel. The panel has now disbanded, saying that its job ended when it came up with its recommendations.

Carey criticized panel members, saying they had met with Westinghouse President G. A. Price and various company plant managers Friday night while the panel drafted its proposed peace terms. He said no such consultation had taken place with IUE representatives.

"IT IS THE first time in labor history, I believe, that one party and not the other was consulted in a situation of this kind," Carey said.

He added that he and the union still had a "high regard" for the mediation service and the members of the panel.

Carey said the motion adopted by the union's conference board, turning down the government plan, said there were a number of recommendations in its acceptable to the union, but several "including those regarding production standards and wage payment plans which are not clear."

Carey said the company has not given the union sufficient safeguards against possible loss of wages and work opportunity for workers in the event of a shift from an incentive rate of pay to a straight day or hourly pay basis.

He said some 30,000 Westinghouse workers stood to lose as much as 50 cents an hour or more pay on this particular issue.

Carey had indicated major objections to the package settlement plan. He wanted 36 strikers, discharged for alleged strike violence, restored to jobs without the arbitration the panel had recommended. The company had agreed to rehire 57 others similarly charged.

Housewife On Sitdown In Zoning Fuss

HAMILTON (AP) — Mrs. Thomas Cooney of Middletown parked herself in a chair yesterday at the office of Butler County Building Commissioner Randell Coning and said she was prepared to stay "six months if necessary" in a zoning dispute.

Mrs. Cooney propped her feet up in another chair and was left in the darkened courthouse when the offices in the building closed last night. She had an overnight case which she said contained a wash cloth, soap, tooth brush and "other essentials."

The fuss was over a building being erected in Dixie Heights, a suburb of Middletown.

Mrs. Cooney claimed that Clinton Centers, the builder of the four-room concrete block structure, was going to use it for a store. That, she said, was in violation of the building code.

Building Commissioner Coning said Centers was denied a certificate to build a store but later obtained permission to build a dwelling valued at $3,000.

"Unless he violated the permit by putting in a business, there is nothing we can do," Coning said.

Mrs. Cooney declared, however, that "if we lose out on this we may as well move out and give up our homes." A business structure, she claimed would detract from the value of residential property in the area.

Mrs. Cooney said she represented herself and others and added:

"Nothing will make me leave until we get some action on this matter. My husband is 100 per cent behind me in this."

Boy's Eating Habits Prove His Undoing

CLEVELAND (AP)—A fondness for hamburgers proved the undoing of a 13-year-old boy who broke into a neighbor's house and stole a .22 caliber rifle.

While there, he raided the icebox and fried a hamburger for himself.

Knowing the boy's eating habits, the neighbors literally sniffed out the identity of the thief, Juvenile Court Judge Albert A. Woldman said today in ordering the boy held for mental tests.

Small Warships Sought At Wedding

MONTE CARLO (AP)—The government of Monaco has asked the United States, France, Italy and Britain to send warships (but small ones) for the marriage of Prince Rainier and Grace Kelly.

The small harbor of the principality can hardly hold a good sized yacht, officials of Monaco said. They would be quite happy if the four invited navies would send along something like a small destroyer or escort craft

Dems Say Ike To Shrink Duty

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) believes that President Eisenhower intends to "shrink" the chief executive's office if reelected.

"Any such contraction of the presidency as is contemplated in the Eisenhower proposal," Sparkman said last night, "cannot but upset the balances set up in our Constitution for the preservation of popular government."

Chairman Paul M. Butler of the Democratic National Committee advanced similar arguments in a speech in Louisville, Ky., in which he said Eisenhower's health is a major campaign issue.

Eisenhower said yesterday that if he should ever feel physically unable to carry on the essential duties of the White House, "I won't be there." He did not make clear whether he meant that in such circumstances he would resign or reverse his week-old decision to seek a second term.

SPARKMAN, Democratic vice presidential nominee in 1952, said that Eisenhower is proposing to hand over to associates "functions which lie at the very core of the presidency."

The Democrats chose Sparkman to reply to Eisenhower's nationwide TV last week in which the President explained his second-term decision.

Sparkman said that in discussing the medically imposed limits on his activities in any second term, Eisenhower was "quite frankly and openly saying to the country that he can never be a truly fulltime president.

"If a full measure of health is ever needed anywhere, it is needed in the White House

Minor Crashes Dent Fenders

Four Autos, Truck Are Damaged Here

Four autos and a truck are headed for the body shop today as a result of three minor collisions here Wednesday afternoon and evening.

First of the three came when Herbert Perrill of the Harmony Road stopped behind another car on South Main Street near Court Street shortly after noon Wednesday.

Frank Jackson, Jr., of near Washington C. H., "didn't notice" Perrill's car until too late to avoid hitting it," he said.

The left rear fender, taillight, rear bumper and panel were damaged on the car Perrill was driving. The car belonged to Howard Perrill of 329 Gregg Street. Jackson's car was dented in the right front fender, grill and panel.

A CAR and a panel truck tangled on Temple Street at the intersection of Central Place Alley, police said, when the truck turned left into the alley.

The truck, driven by John E. Lyons of 324 East Paint Street, turned without signalling, according to the driver of the auto, Mrs. Mary L. Noon, 137 McKinley Avenue.

The right front fender of the car and the left side and fender of the truck were smashed.

The third accident reported to police came when someone bashed in the left rear fender of a car parked on Rose Avenue near the Union Stockyards.

The car belongs to Billie Miller of 332 6th Street. Police said the fender - bumper is not known.

Baldridge Trial

associate, asked the court if he could make a statement.

Judge Case immediately denied the request as irregular.

"It was not of much importance anyhow," Lange said Thursday morning as he declined to disclose the statement.

He also said that if any other juror wished to state what it was, it was O. K.

One of the jurors in the case, questioned Thursday as to what had happened in connection with the balloting by the jury, said that only one ballot was taken — and that it was a verbal one on involuntary manslaughter. The vote was unanimous, the juror said.

Involuntary manslaughter, when committed by the person who inflicts the mortal wound while engaged in the commission of an unlawful act, which act is the proximate cause of the killing, is guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, according to Judge Case's charge to the jury.

The juror stated that all of the time prior to the one ballot had been spent in discussion.

Lange, it is understood, was to have spoken for the whole jury in stating that the jury was of the belief that the killing was involuntary manslaughter or accidental.

FOLLOWING Judge Case's refusal to permit Lange to make a statement, Attorney Emory Smith, defense counsel, asked $200,000 property bond be continued and that Baldridge be released. Judge Case refused to grant the request.

Smith stated that he would apply for a stay of execution bond, and Judge Case replied that when the application was made it would be given due consideration.

Judge Case then announced that Sheriff Hays would take Baldridge into custody. The sheriff took him to the county jail, where he was still a prisoner Thursday awaiting the next step of his attorneys.

Baldridge was allowed to talk briefly with tearful relatives after which he was removed from the court room and taken to the county jail where he had previously been a prisoner for several days until he was able to furnish the largest criminal bond ever required in Fayette County.

The case had been given to the jury at 1:05 P. M. Wednesday after which the jury was sent to lunch, and returned at 2:17 P. M. when deliberations were started.

The jury was in the custody of Court Bailiff David Whiteside and the special bailiff, Miss Mildred Smith, court reporter.

Outside of calling for water once or twice, nothing was heard from the jury until Judge Case called the jury in shortly after 6:15 P. M. and sent it to a restaurant for supper. The jury returned and resumed deliberations about 7:20 P. M.

Judge Case had arranged for accommodations at the Washington Hotel for the jury to remain over night in case a verdict was not reached by a reasonable hour. After the verdict he cancelled the reservations.

DURING the eight days of the trial the state sought to prove that Patrick was killed by Baldridge when the officer sought to disarm Baldridge after he reputedly had threatened the officer with his shotgun and had told him he was not going to bring Donald Butler to jail.

The defense sought to prove that Patrick had been killed accidentally while struggling with Baldridge for possession of the automatic shot gun which Baldridge carried at the time, while hunting with a party of relatives.

Jack Kamman, game protector who was with Patrick at the time, and who saw the killing, was one of the state's main witnesses. He testified that after Baldridge had threatened Patrick with the gun and Patrick sought to disarm him, Baldridge had swung the gun up, then swung it around below Patrick's arms and fired.

The defense tried in vain to keep the state from producing evidence that Baldridge had slugged a farm manager and kicked him after he was down and had been arrested for discharging firearms, the occasion being when Baldridge had fired a bullet through a car in which Lawrence Alexander was leaving the Baldridge premises following an altercation.

No case in recent years has aroused the interest and indignation as that of the Baldridge case.

A sequel to the Baldridge second degree murder case was that soon after the killing, which the jury in effect decided was accidental, although committed as result of a violation of law on the part of Baldridge, Mrs. Patrick, widow of the dead game protector, filed a suit against Baldridge for $150,000 damages for the unlawful death of her husband.

This case, in all probability, will come up for trial within the next few months.

Minor Crashes Dent Fenders

Four Autos, Truck Are Damaged Here

Four autos and a truck are headed for the body shop today as a result of three minor collisions here Wednesday afternoon and evening.

First of the three came when Herbert Perrill of the Harmony Road stopped behind another car on South Main Street near Court Street shortly after noon Wednesday.

Frank Jackson, Jr., of near Washington C. H., "didn't notice" Perrill's car until too late to avoid hitting it," he said.

The left rear fender, taillight, rear bumper and panel were damaged on the car Perrill was driving. The car belonged to Howard Perrill of 329 Gregg Street. Jackson's car was dented in the right front fender, grill and panel.

A CAR and a panel truck tangled on Temple Street at the intersection of Central Place Alley, police said, when the truck turned left into the alley.

The truck, driven by John E. Lyons of 324 East Paint Street, turned without signalling, according to the driver of the auto, Mrs. Mary L. Noon, 137 McKinley Avenue.

The right front fender of the car and the left side and fender of the truck were smashed.

The third accident reported to police came when someone bashed in the left rear fender of a car parked on Rose Avenue near the Union Stockyards.

The car belongs to Billie Miller of 332 6th Street. Police said the fender - bumper is not known.

Baldridge Trial

associate, asked the court if he could make a statement.

Judge Case immediately denied the request as irregular.

"It was not of much importance anyhow," Lange said Thursday morning as he declined to disclose the statement.

He also said that if any other juror wished to state what it was, it was O. K.

One of the jurors in the case, questioned Thursday as to what had happened in connection with the balloting by the jury, said that only one ballot was taken — and that it was a verbal one on involuntary manslaughter. The vote was unanimous, the juror said.

Involuntary manslaughter, when committed by the person who inflicts the mortal wound while engaged in the commission of an unlawful act, which act is the proximate cause of the killing, is guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, according to Judge Case's charge to the jury.

The juror stated that all of the time prior to the one ballot had been spent in discussion.

Lange, it is understood, was to have spoken for the whole jury in stating that the jury was of the belief that the killing was involuntary manslaughter or accidental.

FOLLOWING Judge Case's refusal to permit Lange to make a statement, Attorney Emory Smith, defense counsel, asked $200,000 property bond be continued and that Baldridge be released. Judge Case refused to grant the request.

Smith stated that he would apply for a stay of execution bond, and Judge Case replied that when the application was made it would be given due consideration.

Judge Case then announced that Sheriff Hays would take Baldridge into custody. The sheriff took him to the county jail, where he was still a prisoner Thursday awaiting the next step of his attorneys.

Baldridge was allowed to talk briefly with tearful relatives after which he was removed from the court room and taken to the county jail where he had previously been a prisoner for several days until he was able to furnish the largest criminal bond ever required in Fayette County.

The case had been given to the jury at 1:05 P. M. Wednesday after which the jury was sent to lunch, and returned at 2:17 P. M. when deliberations were started.

The jury was in the custody of Court Bailiff David Whiteside and the special bailiff, Miss Mildred Smith, court reporter.

Outside of calling for water once or twice, nothing was heard from the jury until Judge Case called the jury in shortly after 6:15 P. M. and sent it to a restaurant for supper. The jury returned and resumed deliberations about 7:20 P. M.

Judge Case had arranged for accommodations at the Washington Hotel for the jury to remain over night in case a verdict was not reached by a reasonable hour. After the verdict he cancelled the reservations.

DURING the eight days of the trial the state sought to prove that Patrick was killed by Baldridge when the officer sought to disarm Baldridge after he reputedly had threatened the officer with his shotgun and had told him he was not going to bring Donald Butler to jail.

The defense sought to prove that Patrick had been killed accidentally while struggling with Baldridge for possession of the automatic shot gun which Baldridge carried at the time, while hunting with a party of relatives.

Jack Kamman, game protector who was with Patrick at the time, and who saw the killing, was one of the state's main witnesses. He testified that after Baldridge had threatened Patrick with the gun and Patrick sought to disarm him, Baldridge had swung the gun up, then swung it around below Patrick's arms and fired.

The defense tried in vain to keep the state from producing evidence that Baldridge had slugged a farm manager and kicked him after he was down and had been arrested for discharging firearms, the occasion being when Baldridge had fired a bullet through a car in which Lawrence Alexander was leaving the Baldridge premises following an altercation.

No case in recent years has aroused the interest and indignation as that of the Baldridge case.

A sequel to the Baldridge second degree murder case was that soon after the killing, which the jury in effect decided was accidental, although committed as result of a violation of law on the part of Baldridge, Mrs. Patrick, widow of the dead game protector, filed a suit against Baldridge for $150,000 damages for the unlawful death of her husband.

This case, in all probability, will come up for trial within the next few months.

4-H Club Work Here Is Outstanding

The more than 850 Fayette County boys and girls who are members of approximately 60 4-H clubs of this county and city, have reason to be proud of their organization and of the accomplishments they have achieved in this community.

Also all of Fayette County including Washington C. H. has equal cause to be proud of these girls and boys because of their activities and advancement and what they mean to our citizenship.

We doubt if any of the counties in Ohio, or in the nation, have exhibited more enthusiasm for 4-H work than a majority of those here. They have taken hold of countless projects with meaning and ambition. They have had good leadership and the number of clubs in this county have shown steady growth in all lines of their organization's endeavor.

National 4-H Week, and all it implies, represents something big and worthwhile to these young people as the programs they are carrying on show. If every community has the spirit which has been emphasized in this city and county, the U. S. Department of Agriculture and its Extension Service have plenty of reason to show pride in the steps taken for the development of this huge nation-wide organization.

The interest, helpfulness and activities of the parents and friends of all these young people also should receive due credit for the part they have played.

It is their aid in what the young people are doing, their efforts and encouragement that have helped this big organization to grow.

County Extension Agent W. W. Montgomery and his able young assistant, Philip Grover have been a help in keeping the young peoples' interest in high gear. They also well deserve some of the applause, as well as do those official assistants who in past years have given their time and assistance.

The outstanding thing about the 4-H club work in Fayette County is the fact that the young people actually engaged in the activities, represent as high, or a higher, percentage of young people in the community who are available for membership, as any county in Ohio and certainly far up in the top bracket of the whole nation.

Any person with a proper concept of good citizenship can be proud of the sincerity with which our young people are accepting and acting upon the 4-H members' pledge which says:

"I pledge
My Head to clearer thinking,
My Heart to greater loyalty,
My Hands to larger service and
My Health to better living, for My Club, my Community and my Country."

Those words represent a standard of proper living which is worthy of any group in our nation.

Advice: Change Tensions

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—One way to be happy in this life is to pick your own tensions and learn to enjoy them.

This is a tense century. Tension has become one of the busiest words in the American vocabulary.

The current issue of Newsweek Magazine estimates that 25 per cent of the nation's industrial force is emotionally upset and frustrated. It puts the annual cost in lost wages, medical bills and damaged machinery at $3 billion.

Frightful as this estimate is, it is no indictment of tension in itself. Tension is as essential to the normal human body as it is to the functioning of a rubber band or a watch spring.

The basic trouble with our tense times is that we have let our tensions run wild.

There are two kinds of tensions, the good and the bad. A good tension, such as one we get from playing a game or watching a well-acted drama, is followed by a feeling of both physical and emotional release. The tension relieves itself; we end up relaxed.

A bad tension, such as the kind we build up while pursuing an impossible goal or doing something foolish, only tangles our emotions deeper. We tie ourselves inextricably in knots of our own devising.

How many of our tensions are caused because we let our neighbors, determine our own ambitions?

Just because Jones went into debt and worried himself into an ulcer buying a big car he couldn't afford, is it really necessary for us to buy a bigger car, go deeper into debt, and wind up with a double ulcer? Where is the reward in that kind of tension?

True success lies in the ability to discard goals that we can't achieve or that fail to make us happy.

If you feel yourself acquiring an ulcer over tensions, the thing to do is to take a long cold shower, then look in the mirror and ask yourself:

"Is the fun of what I'm trying to do worth the ulcer I'm getting?"

If it isn't, give it up and switch to a new tension and see if you don't feel better.

Boycotts: Cause and Effect

By George Sokolsky

During the many years that I lived in the Orient, I witnessed several serious mass boycotts, quiet passive resistance movements on the part of a whole people to accomplish a political objective. The most complete effort of this type that I experienced was the Students' Movement in China in 1919 when everything shut down, even food-shops, restaurants and brothels. The startling fact about this movement was that it was spontaneous, without any outstanding leadership.

I studied these movements closely and I found that they always succeeded in their immediate objectives, although subsequently politicians found ways of circumventing their consequences. For instance the 1919 Students' Movement was called to prevent China from signing the Paris Treaty. China did not sign that treaty. As a matter of fact, it was the solid victory of the students in 1919 which gave impetus to the Communist movement in China. Most of the present important Communist leaders were participants in that movement.

The reason that boycott movements are successful is very simple: while it is possible to lead a horse to water, it is impossible to make him drink. When it bebecomes socially improper to buy from certain stores or to use certain products, people do not do what is socially improper. Jail sentences, even the killing of a few leaders never frightened people into buying a boycotted product.

Gandhi learned passive resistance from the Chinese who had practiced it for hundreds of years. It was their way of getting rid of an unpopular official or of an extraordinarily exorbitant tax. Most such taxes were on goods, a transaction tax of some kind. They just did not use that kind of goods, and there was no transaction. Also no taxes were paid. The government invariably gave in because the alternative was shooting down too many people and the jails were never large enough to hold an entire population.

In the West, we have to resort to violence to accomplish our purposes and too often we fail because the violence is swift, sharp and fruitless. Mass passive resistance is a very slow process. It does not start with fierceness and therefore is, at first, unnoticed. Then slowly there is an accumulation of effects, with the pocketbook hit until it screams for protection. Then comes some form of retaliation which usually stimulates the passive resistance and gives it renewed life. Then comes a prolonged trial of strength. It is during this period that the boycotted goods or services cease to exist because the financial strain is impossible. It is at that point that compromisers step in to do something about the boycott. There is not much difference between one people and another. A passive resistance movement that works in India or China will work in the United States if the same social pressures come into existence. I have known Chinese boys who would not be seen with a Chinese girl who wore Japanese-made stockings. As it was impossible to distinguish between silk stockings made in Japan or in the United States, the young ladies did not wear silk stockings at all. Nylons had not yet appeared. They wore ugly, ill-shaped cotton stockings because such were made in China. There is strength in such self-abnegation.

Passive resistance we all practice, particularly when we are children and have to devise ways of getting around parents, teachers and other masterful persons. Therefore the practice is not difficult to learn. In fact, it might be called innate. Whatever it is, you simply do not do it no matter what the consequences.

Of course, parents can spank children for such stubbornness, but if you recall that operation before the days of progressive parenthood, the child attained an enormous victory by howling and shedding tears which diverted the emphasis from the main issue and so the parents claimed, it hurt them more than it did the child. At any rate, the stubborn rascal had to be assuaged to get rid of the howl and the required action remained undone, but the child was supposed to learn not to be so stubborn the next time which he generally was. The female parent usually summed up the equation with the phrase, "I just don't know what to do with that child," which is about true of every situation involving passive resistance.

Don't let him develop poor posture habits such as tilting his head when he reads or plays a game, turning one eye closer to an object he is viewing, holding books or games too close to his eyes, and reading while lying with his chin in his hands supported by his elbows.

Following these few suggestions may prevent eye trouble later on.

Cotton Seen Giving U. S. New Headache

International Fuss Or Price War Looms As Next Possibility

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton threatens today to give Uncle Sam another headache in his role as a world leader.

The fiber is deep in politics in this country. It seems about to set off an international squabble if not a price war.

Uncle Same wants to sell his surplus cotton abroad at the world price. At first glance that would seem fair enough, since this country in recent years has lost most of its once dominant position in the world market because its price became higher than the world price. The United States could get back in the market by selling at what the others get.

The rub comes in this: Much of the world markets we lost while our cotton was being priced above world prices was won by some of our friends, and particularly by some we are now strenuously wooing.

Just as the American cotton farmer would be horrified if Washington announced it would dump its huge surplus of government-owned cotton on the domestic market, so our friends are protesting at the proposal to offer this surplus on the world market at prices lower than those supported by government policy athome.

Uncle Sam's problem is real enough. He has stacked up in his warehouses some 11 million bales of cotton. He expects that to rise to 14 million by next August, the time Agriculture Secretary Benson has set for his drive to double U. S. cotton exports.

Cotton is the big drag on farm exports now. From July to January this country shipped abroad 60 per cent less cotton than in the same seven month period in the previous fiscal year.

The fiber is one of the big items that has pushed the government's investment in price supported farm surpluses to a record high of nearly nine billion dollars — six billion actually owned by the government and three billion pledged as collateral on outstanding price support loans.

Benson hopes to sell five million bales abroad by lowering the price to what other nations are getting. This would be almost double what we shipped last year but still only about half what we exported in the heydey of our cotton exporting history.

Other nations with cotton to sell won't welcome this five million bale competition. Even more they'll fear the 11 or 12 million bales we could dump if we wished. And success in selling surplus cotton might lead us to eye world market for our huge grain surpluses.

Right now our foreign policy is entangled with the troubled Middle East. In that area cotton exporting countries include Egypt, Pakistan, Syria and Turkey — all of whom we'd like on our side. Also, we woo Latin America—and Mexico, Brazil and Peru export cotton.

This is the foreign headache—their displeasure, even the possibility of setting off a price war—which Benson faces.

Microbe Feeding Told By Scientist

CINCINNATI (AP)—A U.S.Department of Agriculture researcher has told of study of a laboratory version of the cattle and sheep stomach that may show the way to cheaper meat, milk products and woolens.

Dr. Orville G. Bentley of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, addressing the annual feed conference, described research on the paunch or first stomach of cattle and sheep. He said that in these animals, microbe activity is the determining factor in digestion.

He said, "the microbes work on the roughages the animals feed on converting them into usable foods for the animals. To increase this activity, thus producing earlier animal growth, the microbes have to be fed properly."

Browning Club Enjoys Talk By Mrs. Grillot

The regular meeting of the Browning Club was held at the lovely new home of Mrs. Versa Angus.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Marguerite Hodge. The usual reports were given and plans were completed for the annual spring banquet which is to be held at the Country Club on April 2 at 6:30 P. M. Mrs. Frances Perrill will have charge of the music and the speaker is to be Mr. Andrew Sparks, to which the public is invited to attend and tickets may be purchased from club members.

The nominating committee, Miss Jane Trent reporting, presented the following slate of officers for the coming year; President, Mrs. Doris Bitzer; Vice President., Mrs. Althea Case; Secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Jane Fultz, and Treasurer, Mrs. Versa Angus.

Mrs. Kathleen Scott, program chairman for the evening, read the poem "Prayers of Steel" by Carl Sandburg. She then presented Mrs. Jane Grillot whose subject was, "An Odyssey of the South with apologies to Jack London."

Mrs. Grillot set the mood for her talk by wearing a Spanish shawl and singing "El Rancho Grande", in Spanish. She then took the group on a capsule tour of regional Mexico by reading excerpts from her daughter's letters Senora Oscar de la Torre, the former Miss Mary Ann Grillot and through accounts from her letters the group visited the Mexico City College and the National University of Mexico. The exterior of the central library at the university is a huge mural in natural color stone and portrays the ancient history of Mexico on one side and the modern history on the other side. It was designed by the artist Juan O'Gorman.

On the tour the group attended a fiesta on Mexico's independence day September 15,; took a Sunday trip to the country to view the beautiful mountain scenery; spent a Christmas in Mexico where dinner was served at midnight and the presents opened afterwards; attended a bull fight Christmas afternoon at 4 o'clock; went to the theatre which was held out of doors and was very realistic with actual pigs, chickens and knights in armour, etc., as a part of the scenery.

Mrs. Grillot displayed pictures, newspapers and magazines from Mexico. From one paper she read the poem "El Afilador", first in Spanish then in English telling how it had been reviewed and interpreted by an orator at the conference of news and magazine reporters. She also gave a similar review of books and poems of the month, reviewing "Palabras Inutiles".

Mr. Grillot then showed the colored films of the Mexican wedding of their lovely daughter, Mary Ann to Senor Oscar de la Torre. The Grillots are planning a trip to Mexico this summer to visit their daughter and husband.

Mrs. Doris Bitzer then told of her recent trip to Mexico and displayed many beautiful souvenirs. While in Mexico she and Mr. Bitzer visited with Mary Ann and her husband.

Browning Club Enjoys Talk By Mrs. Grillot

The regular meeting of the Browning Club was held at the lovely new home of Mrs. Versa Angus.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Marguerite Hodge. The usual reports were given and plans were completed for the annual spring banquet which is to be held at the Country Club on April 2 at 6:30 P. M. Mrs. Frances Perrill will have charge of the music and the speaker is to be Mr. Andrew Sparks, to which the public is invited to attend and tickets may be purchased from club members.

The nominating committee, Miss Jane Trent reporting, presented the following slate of officers for the coming year; President, Mrs. Doris Bitzer; Vice President., Mrs. Althea Case; Secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Jane Fultz, and Treasurer, Mrs. Versa Angus.

Mrs. Kathleen Scott, program chairman for the evening, read the poem "Prayers of Steel" by Carl Sandburg. She then presented Mrs. Jane Grillot whose subject was, "An Odyssey of the South with apologies to Jack London."

Mrs. Grillot set the mood for her talk by wearing a Spanish shawl and singing "El Rancho Grande", in Spanish. She then took the group on a capsule tour of regional Mexico by reading excerpts from her daughter's letters Senora Oscar de la Torre, the former Miss Mary Ann Grillot and through accounts from her letters the group visited the Mexico City College and the National University of Mexico. The exterior of the central library at the university is a huge mural in natural color stone and portrays the ancient history of Mexico on one side and the modern history on the other side. It was designed by the artist Juan O'Gorman.

On the tour the group attended a fiesta on Mexico's independence day September 15,; took a Sunday trip to the country to view the beautiful mountain scenery; spent a Christmas in Mexico where dinner was served at midnight and the presents opened afterwards; attended a bull fight Christmas afternoon at 4 o'clock; went to the theatre which was held out of doors and was very realistic with actual pigs, chickens and knights in armour, etc., as a part of the scenery.

Mrs. Grillot displayed pictures, newspapers and magazines from Mexico. From one paper she read the poem "El Afilador", first in Spanish then in English telling how it had been reviewed and interpreted by an orator at the conference of news and magazine reporters. She also gave a similar review of books and poems of the month, reviewing "Palabras Inutiles".

Mr. Grillot then showed the colored films of the Mexican wedding of their lovely daughter, Mary Ann to Senor Oscar de la Torre. The Grillots are planning a trip to Mexico this summer to visit their daughter and husband.

Mrs. Doris Bitzer then told of her recent trip to Mexico and displayed many beautiful souvenirs. While in Mexico she and Mr. Bitzer visited with Mary Ann and her husband.

PROOF that POLY-LIN* gives the best house paint job you've ever had . . .
THIS / NOT THIS
Dean & Barry Poly-Lin / Regular Linseed Oil
Molecules of 100% pure polymeric (Poly-Lin) linseed oil are more closely interlocked, as compared to the loose and open structure of regular linseed oil. That's why Poly-Lin gives a much stronger, more elastic paint film — why Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-Lin doesn't prematurely break down and dull out.
THIS / NOT THIS (Brush Marks)
Dean & Barry Poly-Lin / Regular Linseed Oil
Poly-Lin permits oil and pigments to be more completely mixed to give these advantages: (1) easier brushing (2) better leveling action; smoother surface (3) a more uniform coating for long, even wear.
THIS (Even reflection of light) / NOT THIS (Uneven reflection of light)
Dean & Barry Poly-Lin / Regular Linseed Oil
Because Poly-Lin gives a smoother, more uniform paint film . . . light is more evenly reflected. That's why Dean & Barry house paint looks glossier — looks better much longer.
*Poly-Lin is the Dean & Barry trade name for 100% pure polymeric linseed oil
a DEAN & BARRY extra value at no extra cost . . .
We've always had good cause to be enthusiastic about the sound value Dean & Barry paint products give. But never in our years of business has such dollar-stretching value been offered in a house paint. Never have we seen a smoother, glossier, longer-lasting finish for the exterior of your home.
That's the way we feel about it. That's the way the proof adds up to us. And for you it adds up to the best house paint job you've ever had.
Check the proof! Buy on facts! Buy Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-Lin from us. Or have your painter-decorator come in. You'll be glad you did!

PROOF that POLY-LIN* gives the best house paint job you've ever had . . .
THIS — Dean & Barry Poly-Lin
NOT THIS — Regular Linseed Oil
Molecules of 100% pure polymeric (Poly-Lin) linseed oil are more closely interlocked, as compared to the loose and open structure of regular linseed oil. That's why Poly-Lin gives a much stronger, more elastic paint film — why Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-Lin doesn't prematurely break down and dull out.
*Poly-Lin is the Dean & Barry trade name for 100% pure polymeric linseed oil
THIS — Dean & Barry Poly-Lin
NOT THIS — Brush Marks — Regular Linseed Oil
Poly-Lin permits oil and pigments to be more completely mixed to give these advantages: (1) easier brushing (2) better leveling action; smoother surface (3) a more uniform coating for long, even wear.
THIS — Even reflection of light — Dean & Barry Poly-Lin
NOT THIS — Uneven reflection of light — Regular Linseed Oil
Because Poly-Lin gives a smoother, more uniform paint film . . . light is more evenly reflected. That's why Dean & Barry house paint looks glossier — looks better much longer.
a DEAN & BARRY extra value at no extra cost . . .
We've always had good cause to be enthusiastic about the sound value Dean & Barry paint products give. But never in our years of business has such dollar-stretching value been offered in a house paint. Never have we seen a smoother, glossier, longer-lasting finish for the exterior of your home.
That's the way we feel about it. That's the way the proof adds up to us. And for you it adds up to the best house paint job you've ever had.
Check the proof! Buy on facts! Buy Dean & Barry house paint with Poly-Lin from us. Or have your painter-decorator come in. You'll be glad you did!

State Aide Plans Checkup On Traffic Fine Collector

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—U. C. Felty, director of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, Wednesday ordered a check made on activities of a Washington, D. C., traffic fine collection agency.

Known as the National Bureau of Traffic Violations, the agency serves communities having delinquent traffic fines for a fee of 50 per cent of the fine, according to one Ohio police official.

Director Felty said in his opinior the Washington concern cannot legally collect such fines for various communities. He said he had been "deluged" with complaints recently.

At Jackson, Ohio, Police Chief Otto R. Hacker said Jackson had availed itself of the agency's service about three months ago, but that now he "frankly believes it was a mistake."

Chief Hacker said the firm had written a letter to Jackson offering its services and that he and former Mayor Wayne Harbar, who left office Jan. 1, had decided to accept the service.

He said about three months ago he sent the agency about 100 cases involving motorists who had failed to pay fines. Most of the cases involved motorists "from all over the United States," he said.

Thus far, said Chief Hacker, "we haven't received any remittances from the agency." He added, however, that under the agreement the firm was not to make "remittance until two or three months."

The police chief said he is certain Jackson will not send the firm further business.

Among the complaint letters received by Felty was one from a Columbus man who had ignored a traffic ticket issued to him in Jackson.

The man said he got the ticket last June 13 for overtime parking. On Dec. 9, he received a notification from Jackson that he had not paid the fine.

Then, last Monday, he said he received a notification from the Washington agency, pointing out that he had failed to pay the Jackson ticket and warning, he said, "unless you pay on or before final date (March 19) further action will be taken without further notice to you."

The notification stipulated that "this notice with money order or check payable to the National Bureau of Traffic Violations be returned to the agency at Washington, D. C."

Train Cuts Short Teen-Agers' Date

SPEED, Ind. (AP)—A Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train cut short Wednesday night the date of a Jeffersonville teen-age couple.

State Police said 17-year-old Ray Franklin told them he ran out of gas and pushed his car, at least he thought so, clear of the railraod's track on the White City road. He left his girl companion Bonnie Bergin, 15, in the car. Soon the southbound train came by at a 70 m.p.h. clip. Bonnie saw the train in time to get out of the car whose rear end was demolished.

When young Franklin returned, Bonnie was gone but State Police officers were there. Franklin was charged with illegal parking. The young girl showed up later, very scared.

Canton Jury Hangs In Racial Dispute

CANTON (AP)—The two-day trial of a Negro's suit for $5,500 from a Waynesburg movie theater owner on grounds of racial discrimination ended late yesterday when the jury failed to agree.

The suit was the first of nine filed by Negroes against Ralph Bevington, owner-manager of the Mohawk Theater in Waynesburg, a village of 1,500. They charged that Bevington deprived them of their civil rights by insisting they could not sit on the right side of the theater last Feb. 23. Each asked $5,500 in damages.

John Kelly, plaintiff in the suit this week, had an 8-4 margin in his favor on the jury panel, foreman Clyde Allison reported. A 9-3 margin was required.

Great Lake Channel Deepening Gets OK

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Senate Public Works Committee has approved legislation to authorize deepening of the channels connecting the Great Lakes. The work would cost $110 million.

This project would provide a 27-foot channel in the Great Lakes west of Lake Erie so that ocean-going ships could sail westward from the St. Lawrence Waterway. The bill approved previously had passed the House. It now goes to the Senate for consideration.

6-Month Term Given In Beating

CLEVELAND (AP)—Louis W. Taylor, who fatally beat a Columbus man he found in an intimate embrace with Mrs. Taylor, was sentenced yesterday to six months in the workhouse for assault.

Taylor pleaded guilty before Common Pleas Judge Donald F. Lybarger.

The 34-year-old truck driver beat up Victor Lukanovic, 59, last Sept. 22. Lukanovic died 10 days later. Taylor found the salesman with Mrs. Taylor in the living room of the Taylor apartment.

He was tried on a manslaughter charge in January, but the jury was unable to reach a verdict.

Probers Find 'Large Errors' In Navy Jet Fighter Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators said today "large errors" and "waste of public funds" marked a half billion dollar effort to build a Navy jet fighter.

A government operations subcommittee said the Navy, the McDonnell Aircraft Corp., and the Westinghouse Electric Corp. "must share the responsibility" for this.

But it said in a unanimous report that "final responsibility rests with the Navy as the government procuring agency." There was no immediate comment from the Navy.

The subcommittee's report followed hearings last Oct. 24-27 on the 8½-year history of the "Demon," built by McDonnell, St. Louis, Mo., with jet engines from Westinghouse.

Over that period, there were 11 crashes and four pilot deaths. Sixty of the planes were grounded because their engines didn't have enough power.

Some 220 of the later-model Demons, fitted with more powerful Allison jet engines, are finally being delivered for fleet use, the committee said. But it said the planes are "now or soon may be obsolete."

The House group made "no charge of impropriety in the strict legal sense" on a side issue involving retired Rear Adm. Lloyd Harrison.

Adm. Harrison was deputy and assistant chief of the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics from September 1952 until July 31, 1955. Next day he stepped into a $20,800-a-year job as vice president of McDonnell. Both James S. McDonnell, president of the aircraft firm, and Harrison testified the retired admiral has not used his military connections to gain favored treatment for McDonnell.

However, the House report called on Secretary of Defense Wilson to strengthen present rules covering industry hiring of retired officers.

The "Demon" story began back in 1947 when the Navy asked Westinghouse to develop a powerful new jet engine. McDonnell got its first contract for Demon, or F3H fighters, in 1949. They were to be flown with the new Westinghouse J40 engine.

Ohio Nudist Camp Ban Is Upheld

COLUMBUS (AP) — The State Supreme Court has refused to lift Ohio's ban on nudist camps.

A 7-0 decision denied Miss Edith Church of Toledo and others a writ of mandamus against Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. Miss Church asked the writ to compel Brown to issue a non-profit corporation charter for National Nudist Council, Inc.

Attorneys said the council sought a charter so sponsors could establish a nudist colony and advocate nudism as a "doctrine of life."

Brown turned down the request for a charter on grounds that Ohio law bans nudism.

State Aide Plans Checkup On Traffic Fine Collector

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—U. C. Felty, director of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, Wednesday ordered a check made on activities of a Washington, D. C., traffic fine collection agency.

Known as the National Bureau of Traffic Violations, the agency serves communities having delinquent traffic fines for a fee of 50 per cent of the fine, according to one Ohio police official.

Director Felty said in his opinion the Washington concern cannot legally collect such fines for various communities. He said he had been "deluged" with complaints recently.

At Jackson, Ohio, Police Chief Otto R. Hacker said Jackson had availed itself of the agency's service about three months ago, but that now he "frankly believes it was a mistake."

Chief Hacker said the firm had written a letter to Jackson offering its services and that he and former Mayor Wayne Harbar, who left office Jan. 1, had decided to accept the service.

He said about three months ago he sent the agency about 100 cases involving motorists who had failed to pay fines. Most of the cases involved motorists "from all over the United States," he said.

Thus far, said Chief Hacker, "we haven't received any remittances from the agency." He added, however, that under the agreement the firm was not to make "remittance until two or three months."

The police chief said he is certain Jackson will not send the firm further business.

Among the complaint letters received by Felty was one from a Columbus man who had ignored a traffic ticket issued to him in Jackson.

The man said he got the ticket last June 13 for overtime parking. On Dec. 9, he received a notification from Jackson that he had not paid the fine.

Then, last Monday, he said he received a notification from the Washington agency, pointing out that he had failed to pay the Jackson ticket and warning, he said, "unless you pay on or before final date (March 10) further action will be taken without further notice to you."

The notification stipulated that "this notice with money order or check payable to the National Bureau of Traffic Violations be returned to the agency at Washington, D. C."

Train Cuts Short Teen-Agers' Date

SPEED, Ind. (AP)—A Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train cut short Wednesday night the date of a Jeffersonville teen-age couple.

State Police said 17-year-old Ray Franklin told them he ran out of gas and pushed his car, at least he thought so, clear of the railraod's track on the White City road. He left his girl companion, Bonnie Bergin, 15, in the car. Soon the southbound train came by at a 70 m.p.h. clip. Bonnie saw the train in time to get out of the car whose rear end was demolished.

When young Franklin returned, Bonnie was gone but State Police officers were there. Franklin was charged with illegal parking. The young girl showed up later, very scared.

Canton Jury Hangs In Racial Dispute

CANTON (AP)—The two-day trial of a Negro's suit for $5,500 from a Waynesburg movie theater owner on grounds of racial discrimination ended late yesterday when the jury failed to agree.

The suit was the first of nine filed by Negroes against Ralph Bevington, owner-manager of the Mohawk Theater in Waynesburg, a village of 1,500. They charged that Bevington deprived them of their civil rights by insisting they could not sit on the right side of the theater last Feb. 23. Each asked $5,500 in damages.

John Kelly, plaintiff in the suit this week, had an 8-4 margin in his favor on the jury panel, foreman Clyde Allison reported. A 9-3 margin was required.

Great Lake Channel Deepening Gets OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Public Works Committee has approved legislation to authorize deepening of the channels connecting the Great Lakes. The work would cost $110 million.

This project would provide a 27-foot channel in the Great Lakes west of Lake Erie so that ocean-going ships could sail westward from the St. Lawrence Waterway. The bill approved previously had passed the House. It now goes to the Senate for consideration.

6-Month Term Given In Beating

CLEVELAND (AP)—Louis W. Taylor, who fatally beat a Columbus man he found in an intimate embrace with Mrs. Taylor, was sentenced yesterday to six months in the workhouse for assault.

Taylor pleaded guilty before Common Pleas Judge Donald F. Lybarger.

The 34-year-old truck driver beat up Victor Lukanovic, 59, last Sept. 22. Lukanovic died 10 days later. Taylor found the salesman with Mrs. Taylor in the living room of the Taylor apartment.

He was tried on a manslaughter charge in January, but the jury was unable to reach a verdict.

Probers Find 'Large Errors' In Navy Jet Fighter Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators said today "large errors" and "waste of public funds" marked a half billion dollar effort to build a Navy jet fighter.

A government operations subcommittee said the Navy, the McDonnell Aircraft Corp., and the Westinghouse Electric Corp. "must share the responsibility" for this.

But it said in a unanimous report that "final responsibility rests with the Navy as the government procuring agency." There was no immediate comment from the Navy.

The subcommittee's report followed hearings last Oct. 24-27 on the 8½-year history of the "Demon," built by McDonnell, St. Louis, Mo., with jet engines from Westinghouse.

Over that period, there were 11 crashes and four pilot deaths. Sixty of the planes were grounded because their engines didn't have enough power.

Some 220 of the later-model Demons, fitted with more powerful Allison jet engines, are finally being delivered for fleet use, the committee said. But it said the planes are "now or soon may be obsolete."

The House group made "no charge of impropriety in the strict legal sense" on a side issue involving retired Rear Adm. Lloyd Harrison.

Adm. Harrison was deputy and assistant chief of the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics from September 1952 until July 31, 1955. Next day he stepped into a $20,800-a-year job as vice president of McDonnell. Both James S. McDonnell, president of the aircraft firm, and Harrison testified the retired admiral has not used his military connections to gain favored treatment for McDonnell.

However, the House report called on Secretary of Defense Wilson to strengthen present rules covering industry hiring of retired officers.

The "Demon" story began back in 1947 when the Navy asked Westinghouse to develop a powerful new jet engine. McDonnell got its first contract for Demon, or F3H fighters, in 1949. They were to be flown with the new Westinghouse J40 engine.

Unless Sen. Byrd Changes, Virginia May OK Ike Again

(Editor's Note: This is one in 3 series of stories by the AP's national political reporters who are surveying the situation across the country in the light of President Eisenhower's decision to seek a second term.)

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Most top Democrats agreed today that unless U. S. Senator Harry F. Byrd supports his party's nominee for president this year President Eisenhower probably will carry Virginia again.

Robert Whitehead, a leader of the anti-Byrd faction in the Democratic party, told this reporter that if the rival groups united behind the candidate, "we'd have a good chance of returning the state to the Democratic fold."

Otherwise, he said, "I don't see how we can win." He said Byrd's support is vital to victory.

Byrd refused to support Adlai Stevenson in 1952 because he said he considered Stevenson's views too much the same as former President Truman's on labor, civil rights and other issues. While Byrd did not publicly endorse Eisenhower, the Republican candidate carried the state with a margin of 80,360 votes.

Byrd is keeping silent so far on the newly announced candidacy of Eisenhower and that of Democrat Stevenson, who had Whitehead's open support.

Those close to Byrd say he is not too enthusiastic just now about either Eisenhower or Stevenson in view of developments on the civil rights and racial fronts. But they say he regards Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) and New York Gov. Averell Harriman with even less favor. Kefauver is out campaigning for the Democratic nomination. Harriman is an "inactive" candidate.

A check of leading Democrats in Virginia indicates there is little sentiment at this time for a third party. Political observers said a movement in that direction in one section of the state had made little headway elsewhere.

States rights Democrats carried four southern states against Truman in 1948. But they drew only 43,393 votes in Virginia, and Truman carried the state against Republican candidate Thomas E. Dewey by a margin of 200,786 to 172,070.

Byrd spoke up recently with a call to the South for "massive resistance" to U. S. District Court orders carrying out the U. S. Supreme Court decree against segregation in the public schools.

"I believe the people outside the South must wake up and realize that we are not going to accept desegregation calmly," Byrd said. He and other southern Democratic senators are working on a plan to assure their home states of support for any "lawful means" of resisting such orders.

Virginia leaders are going ahead with a proposal aimed at providing public tuition grants for private school education of children whose parents object to racially integrated education.

Developments on integration, including platforms of the two major parties and statements of the candidates, ultimately will determine how Byrd takes his stand, his friends say.

The senator is known to have expressed disappointment over Eisenhower's role leading up to the Supreme Court decision against school segregation and the hand the Justice Department played in asking for it.

Judge Is Asked To Double Duties

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has asked Common Pleas Judge Leland R. Rutherford of Morrow County to serve also as probate judge without additional pay.

The governor acted after the recent resignation of Probate Judge John McMillan who is to become administrative assistant to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Lausche said the county bar association had taken steps to place on November election ballots the question of consolidating the two courts. The association said one judge could handle the work of both courts adequately.

Unless Sen. Byrd Changes, Virginia May OK Ike Again

(Editor's Note: This is one in 3 series of stories by the AP's national political reporters who are surveying the situation across the country in the light of President Eisenhower's decision to seek a second term.)

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Most top Democrats agreed today that unless U. S. Senator Harry F. Byrd supports his party's nominee for president this year President Eisenhower probably will carry Virginia again.

Robert Whitehead, a leader of the anti-Byrd faction in the Democratic party, told this reporter that if the rival groups united behind the candidate, "we'd have a good chance of returning the state to the Democratic fold."

Otherwise, he said, "I don't see how we can win." He said Byrd's support is vital to victory.

Byrd refused to support Adlai Stevenson in 1952 because he said he considered Stevenson's views too much the same as former President Truman's on labor, civil rights and other issues. While Byrd did not publicly endorse Eisenhower, the Republican candidate carried the state with a margin of 80,360 votes.

Byrd is keeping silent so far on the newly announced candidacy of Eisenhower and that of Democrat Stevenson, who had Whitehead's open support.

Those close to Byrd say he is not too enthusiastic just now about either Eisenhower or Stevenson in view of developments on the civil rights and racial fronts. But they say he regards Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) and New York Gov. Averell Harriman with even less favor. Kefauver is out campaigning for the Democratic nomination. Harriman is an "inactive" candidate.

A check of leading Democrats in Virginia indicates there is little sentiment at this time for a third party. Political observers said a movement in that direction in one section of the state had made little headway elsewhere.

States rights Democrats carried four southern states against Truman in 1948. But they drew only 43,393 votes in Virginia, and Truman carried the state against Republican candidate Thomas E. Dewey by a margin of 200,786 to 172,070.

Byrd spoke up recently with a call to the South for "massive resistance" to U. S. District Court orders carrying out the U. S. Supreme Court decree against segregation in the public schools.

"I believe the people outside the South must wake up and realize that we are not going to accept desegregation calmly," Byrd said. He and other southern Democratic senators are working on a plan to assure their home states of support for any "lawful means" of resisting such orders.

Virginia leaders are going ahead with a proposal aimed at providing public tuition grants for private school education of children whose parents object to racially integrated education.

Developments on integration, including platforms of the two major parties and statements of the candidates, ultimately will determine how Byrd takes his stand, his friends say.

The senator is known to have expressed disappointment over Eisenhower's role leading up to the Supreme Court decision against school segregation and the hand the Justice Department played in asking for it.

Judge Is Asked To Double Duties

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche has asked Common Pleas Judge Leland R. Rutherford of Morrow County to serve also as probate judge without additional pay.

The governor acted after the recent resignation of Probate Judge John McMillan who is to become administrative assistant to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Lausche said the county bar association had taken steps to place on November election ballots the question of consolidating the two courts. The association said one judge could handle the work of both courts adequately.

Sale of Easter Seals To Start Here March 10

Expanded Program For Crippled Children Is Planned Here

Final plans are now being rapidly shaped up for the Easter Seal sale which starts in Washington C. H., throughout Fayette County and elsewhere over Ohio on Saturday March 10.

The expanded program in Fayette County calls for a quota of $3,000 this year to meet medical, surgical, equipment including hearing aids and other expenses for this city and county.

Help in sending some of the needy crippled children to special camps for two week periods during the coming summer where they will receive healthful recreation and training in self-help activities, is another feature of this program.

The drive which begins Saturday starts with the mailing of 5,800 letters in this city and county which contain the appeal for liberal contributions to meet the expenses of the extensive program of help which has been outlined.

A stateside plea in behalf of Ohio's crippled children was issued by Governor Frank Lausche in a proclamation which officially opens the 1956 Easter Seal campaign on March 10.

The proclamation from the executive office in Columbus urged Ohio's citizens to provide the needed services for crippled children by supporting the 23rd annual Easter Seal appeal for funds.

"We cannot fail to meet the needs of the crippled youngsters in Ohio. These youngsters who today require hours of medical care and therapy can be valuable adult citizens," Governor Lausche said in a statement accompanying the proclamation "One of Ohio's most precious resources is its human resource. We must protect and develop this resource to the utmost of our ability.

"Because of this, we have a tremendous responsibility to our young people, especially the thousands who are crippled through misfortunes of illness or accident. They need the support of every citizen to grow to happy, productive adulthood."

Ohio Power Co. Plans Expansion

CANTON (AP)—The Ohio Power Co. plans a $67 million budget for 1956 construction and expansion. It is the largest one-year budget in the history of the firm.

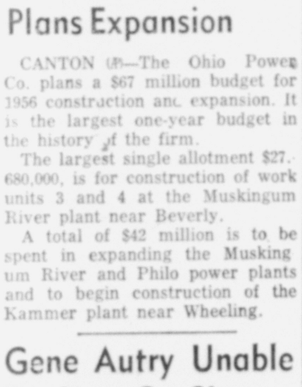

The largest single allotment $27,680,000, is for construction of work units 3 and 4 at the Muskingum River plant near Beverly.

A total of $42 million is to be spent in expanding the Muskingum River and Philo power plants and to begin construction of the Kammer plant near Wheeling.

Poet's Corner

IT GOT ME

At last, it got me—the flu germ
That has been floating all around;
It got me down for a long count,
To my upper room I've been bound;
I've had plenty of time to think,
To plan and re-arrange plans;
Now what I need is lot of strength—
Lots of things are awaiting my hands;
It is well to have time to think,
To rest from one's labors awhile;
Then we can make a real new start
And look upon life with a smile.

Farm Home Robbed In Paint Township

The farm home of Herbert Evans, on the State Road, Paint Township, was robbed of $200 worth of silverware and electric appliances sometime Tuesday night while the Evans family was moving from one farm location to another, and had placed part of their household goods in the house which was burglarized while the family was still occupying their old home.

The loss was not discovered until late Wednesday, when Sheriff Orland Hays was notified, and an investigation was made, but no good clues could be obtained.

Wapak Judge Eyes Dismissal Move

WAPAKONETA (AP) — Auglaize County Common Pleas Judge Jacob T. Koenig has been asked to dismiss a first degree murder indictment against James Thornton, one of three Hazal Park, Mich. youths accused of slaying Charles H. Stolzenbach, 55.

Attorney Ernest S. Navarre, in making a motion for dismissal yesterday said Thornton was indicted illegally because he was only 17 years old.

The prosecution, however, moved for a joint trial of all three youths. Judge Koenig took both motions under advisement.

Thornton, Bernard Harris, 18, and Willie Thomas, 20, are accused of slaying Stolzenbach at his Hickory Villa Tavern three miles north of here on Jan. 24.

Home accidents killed 27,000 U. S. people in 1955.

Poet's Corner

IT GOT ME

At last, it got me—the flu germ
That has been floating all around;
It got me down for a long count,
To my upper room I've been bound;
I've had plenty of time to think,
To plan and re-arrange plans;
Now what I need is lot of strength—
Lots of things are awaiting my hands;
It is well to have time to think,
To rest from one's labors awhile;
Then we can make a real new start
And look upon life with a smile.

Farm Home Robbed In Paint Township

The farm home of Herbert Evans, on the State Road, Paint Township, was robbed of $200 worth of silverware and electric appliances sometime Tuesday night while the Evans family was moving from one farm location to another, and had placed part of their household goods in the house which was burglarized while the family was still occupying their old home.

The loss was not discovered until late Wednesday, when Sheriff Orland Hays was notified, and an investigation was made, but no good clues could be obtained.

Wapak Judge Eyes Dismissal Move

WAPAKONETA (AP) — Auglaize County Common Pleas Judge Jacob T. Koenig has been asked to dismiss a first degree murder indictment against James Thornton, one of three Hazal Park, Mich. youths accused of slaying Charles H. Stolzenbach, 55.

Attorney Ernest S. Navarre, in making a motion for dismissal yesterday said Thornton was indicted illegally because he was only 17 years old.

The prosecution, however, moved for a joint trial of all three youths. Judge Koenig took both motions under advisement.

Thornton, Bernard Harris, 18, and Willie Thomas, 20, are accused of slaying Stolzenbach at his Hickory Villa Tavern three miles north of here on Jan. 24.

Home accidents killed 27,000 U. S. people in 1955.

Party Chairmen Swap Jibes Over State Of Ike's Health

KANSAS CITY (AP)—GOP Chairman Leonard Hall says President Eisenhower is ready for fulltime duty in a second term but even if he could spend only halftime at the job he would be better than anyone the Democrats have.

This observation came in a political battle of wits between Hall and Democratic Chairman Paul Butler last night on the Kansas City Press Club Griddle Show.

Butler promised the Democrats would retire Eisenhower completely next Nov. 6. And he said it was the President and not the Democrats who had injected health into the campaign.

Butler contended special interest on the Republican side and a Democratic program for all the people was the paramount issue. But he added:

"President Eisenhower is the first President ever to suffer a heart attack in office. And I say to you, Mr. Hall, it will be a sad day when the American people cannot question the physical and moral fitness of the man who heads our great government."

* * *

"HEART ATTACK?" replied Hall. "Why many of my friends in government have had heart attacks and are carrying on as well as ever."

"Yes, and some of them are elsewhere," Butler rejoined.

The somewhat heated exchange was more or less expected as the club's interrogators first needled both Hall and Butler with humorous but provocative questions. Roy Roberts, president of the Kansas City Star, was moderator.

Butler wanted to talk about a billion-dollar drop in farm income last year and blamed the Republicans for it.

And he said the small businessman is complaining his volume and profits are down while the big corporations report increased earnings.

Hall said Butler "approached the brink of truth" in his summation and Butler replied that was a "good phrase coming from a Republican." Hall said Butler neglected to tell his questioners "there are 65 million people working in this country at $11 a week more than when the GOP came into power."

Woman To Inherit Estate Of Her Walk-Away Husband

RIVERHEAD, N. Y. (AP) — A Brooklyn housewife whose first husband walked out on her after two weeks of married life 38 years ago has inherited $260,000 from his estate.

Mrs. Myra Richman Duck, 53 had never heard from the husband since the marriage. She mistakenly believed she had divorced him nearly 20 years ago.

The husband, Helge Nelson of Huntington, N.Y., and Miami Beach, Fla., died at the Florida resort last year at 55. He left an estate estimated at $650,000 but no will.

Agreement on Mrs. Duck's share of his estate was reached in Surrogate's Court here.

Mrs. Duck married Nelson when she was 15 and he was 17. Then he left.

Nearly 20 years later she wanted to marry Frank L. Duck. She hired a lawyer to get a desertion divorce from her long-departed husband in the event he was still alive.

The lawyer, she told Surrogate Edgar Hazelton, informed her later that he had gotten a divorce decree. She went ahead and married Duck.

Nelson, meanwhile, was amassing a fortune as a partner in a Brooklyn metal products factory.

At the time of his death, his common-law wife Dorothy Compisi filed in Surrogate's Court here for a widow's share of the estate.

A search for possible survivors was launched. It turned up Mrs. Duck.

The lawyer, it developed, had misinformed her and had never gotten a divorce decree after all. She was still Nelson's legal wife.

Under the agreement, Mrs. Duck is to inherit 40 per cent of the estate. The other 60 per cent goes to Nelson's sister, a half - sister and a half-brother.

Dorothy Compisi got nothing.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

The fourth graders at Eastside School have been studying the art of letter writing, with their teacher, Dorothy S. Crone, as pilot.

They have learned the five parts of a friendly letter, where each part is placed, and the punctuation.

Last week the boys and girls embarked on their first "solo flight." Letters were written to grandpas, grandmas, aunts, uncles, cousins, brothers, sisters, and friends.

The bodies of the letters had varied information and requests. Joey wrote to his big brother at an army base in Texas asking: "When are you going to send me those stripes? I want to put them on my coat."

Tommy wrote to a former teacher saying: "I pray every day and night and at meals. I wish you could come to the First Christian Church so you could be my teacher."

Letters were sent to: Washington, Indiana; Englewood, Florida; Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Ashland, Kentucky; a tank division in Texas; Fairfax, Virginia; Pigeon, Michigan; and Dayton, Springfield, Lynchburg, and Xenia, Ohio.

The project is a part of the English program in the elementary schools.

Westinghouse Union Shuns OK Of Terms To End Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Union negotiators continued to hold out today for more favorable terms than government mediators have proposed for ending the 143-day Westinghouse strike.

Company representatives have accepted the government plan.

A federal mediation service panel which drafted the settlement package refused to change its provisions despite pleas from James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers.

The plan would give the Westinghouse Electric Corp. a five-year contract, similar to one negotiated by the IUE with another major electrical manufacturing firm, the General Electric Co.

The government-proposed terms also would provide safeguards the union wanted against company job changes designed to promote economy.

Annual wage increases ranging from 5 cents to more than 17 cents an hour, plus pension and insurance improvements, also were recommended.

WORKERS AVERAGED $2.10 an hour when the strike began.

David L. Cole, Paterson, N. J., attorney and one of the mediators, said the recommendations were designed to be fair to both sides. The company's acceptance statement said Westinghouse felt the terms are "fair to both company and union."

Carey was reported insisting on outright reinstatement of 95 strikers fired by the company for alleged violence. The panel suggested that 59 of these strikers be reinstated and that the remaining 36 cases be submitted to arbitration. This was accepted by the company.

Other than resisting the proposed arbitration, Carey said he had other objections to the settlement plan. He did not elaborate.

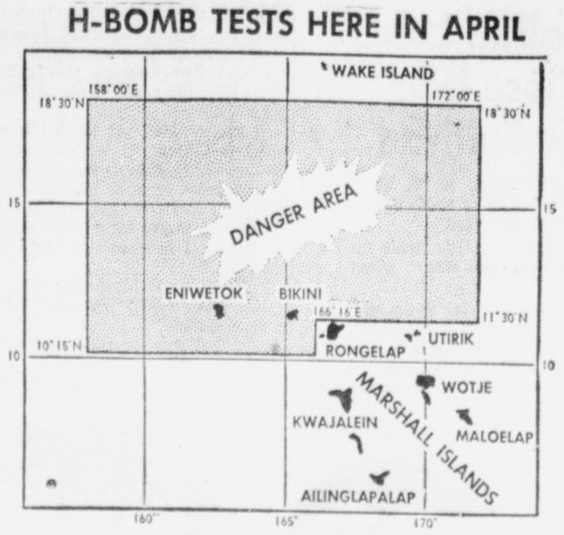

More than 50,000 workers have been idled in 40 Westinghouse plants. The IUE represents about 44,000 of them. The United Electrical Workers has 10,000.

Gotham Out To Shush All Extra Noise

NEW YORK (AP)—If you're looking for a nice, quiet place to go, this may be it—sometime.

Officials are out to shush all unnecessary noise.

But they're well aware that's not going to be an easy job in a city that just naturally doesn't hanker to be shushed.

Roaring subways, clattering garbage cans, the riveter's rat-a-tat-tat, thundering trucks and squealing brakes are as much a part of the big town as the Empire State Building.

Still, you never know. The new anti-noise campaign started off with a bang . . . er, pardon . . . a quiet but dramatic success.

In just one week, authorities claimed today, the damper has all but completely been put on the No. 1 noise maker of all time: the horn honker.

His unnecessary blaring has been cut 75 per cent or more. Furthermore, even the necessary honking during the past few days has been muted.

John J. Hornblower, No. 1 target in the noise battle, was given until March 15 to reform. After that, he'll be given a summons.

Deputy commerce commissioner Martin Dodge said the anti-noise program was launched because New York had become about the noisiest city in creation.

If the ice on Greenland were melted, the level of the world's oceans would rise 24 or more feet.

567 Motions Filed In Brink's Case

BOSTON (AP)—A record-breaking total of 567 motions were filed in Suffolk Superior Court yesterday by Atty. Paul T. Smith on behalf of his client, Joseph F. McGinnis, one of 10 men charged with the $1,218,211 Brink's robbery.

The motions—30 big boxes full—were loaded onto a counter of the court clerk who said that never have so many motions been filed for one defendant in the history of the county.

The motions cover 25,000 pages of printed copy and weigh 250 pounds. Eighty - one indictments have been returned against McGinnis, listed by the FBI as the "brains" in the Brink's robbery of Jan. 17, 1950.

Westinghouse Union Shuns OK Of Terms To End Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Union negotiators continued to hold out today for more favorable terms than government mediators have proposed for ending the 143-day Westinghouse strike.

Company representatives have accepted the government plan.

A federal mediation service panel which drafted the settlement package refused to change its provisions despite pleas from James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers.

The plan would give the Westinghouse Electric Corp. a five-year contract, similar to one negotiated by the IUE with another major electrical manufacturing firm, the General Electric Co.

The government-proposed terms also would provide safeguards the union wanted against company job changes designed to promote economy.

Annual wage increases ranging from 5 cents to more than 17 cents an hour, plus pension and insurance improvements, also were recommended.

WORKERS AVERAGED $2.10 an hour when the strike began.

David L. Cole, Paterson, N. J., attorney and one of the mediators, said the recommendations were designed to be fair to both sides. The company's acceptance statement said Westinghouse felt the terms are "fair to both company and union."

Carey was reported insisting on outright reinstatement of 95 strikers fired by the company for alleged violence. The panel suggested that 59 of these strikers be reinstated and that the remaining 36 cases be submitted to arbitration. This was accepted by the company.

Other than resisting the proposed arbitration, Carey said he had other objections to the settlement plan. He did not elaborate.

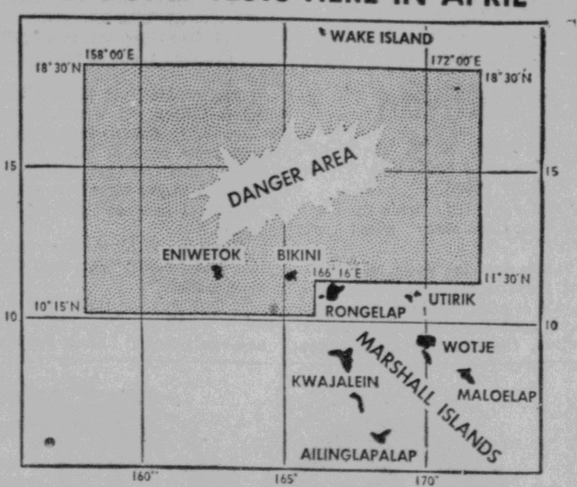

More than 50,000 workers have been idled in 40 Westinghouse plants The IUE represents about 44,000 of them. The United Electrical Workers has 10,000.

Gotham Out To Shush All Extra Noise

NEW YORK (AP)—If you're looking for a nice, quiet place to go, this may be it—sometime.

Officials are out to shush all unnecessary noise.

But they're well aware that's not going to be an easy job in a city that just naturally doesn't hanker to be shushed.

Roaring subways, clattering garbage cans, the riveter's rat-a-tat-tat, thundering trucks and squealing brakes are as much a part of the big town as the Empire State Building.

Still, you never know. The new anti-noise campaign started off with a bang . . . er, pardon . . . a quiet but dramatic success.

In just one week, authorities claimed today, the damper has all but completely been put on the No. 1 noise maker of all time: the horn honker.

His unnecessary blaring has been cut 75 per cent or more Furthermore, even the necessary honking during the past few days has been muted.

John J. Hornblower, No. 1 target in the noise battle, was given until March 15 to reform. After that, he'll be given a summons.

Deputy commerce commissioner Martin Dodge said the anti noise program was launched because New York had become about the noisiest city in creation.

If the ice on Greenland were melted, the level of the world's oceans would rise 24 or more feet.

BOSTON (AP)—A record-breaking total of 567 motions were filed in Suffolk Superior Court yesterday by Atty. Paul T. Smith on behalf of his client, Joseph F. McGinnis, one of 10 men charged with the $1,218,211 Brink's robbery.

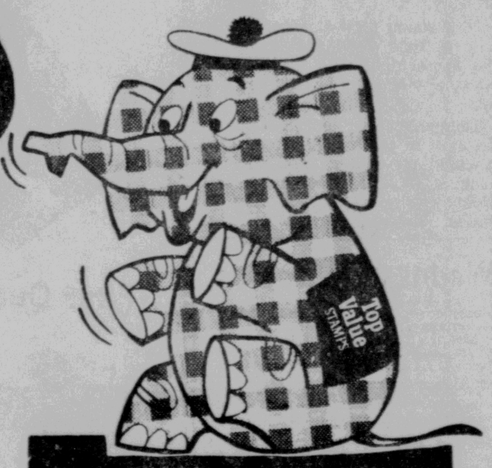

The motions—30 big boxes full—were loaded onto a counter of the court clerk who said that never have so many motions been filed for one defendant in the history of the county.

The motions cover 25,000 pages of printed copy and weigh 250 pounds. Eighty - one indictments have been returned against McGinnis, listed by the FBI as the "brains" in the Brink's robbery of Jan. 17, 1950.

LaBua Loses Close Decision To Sullivan

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—"I say, old chap, sorry about that eye, but look at my nose."

"The eye's OK, won't need any stitches. I'm sorry about your nose."

That's dressing room—not drawing room—chitchat between England's John L. Sullivan, the victor on a split decision, and Jackie LaBua, the gracious loser, shortly after they had battered each other for 10 slug-and-clinch rounds in a televised fight last night.

LaBua had dropped into Sullivan's dressing room to pay his respects.

"I just couldn't get started," remarked LaBua. "I was ashamed of myself. I didn't feel like I should have been in there at all. Y'know I just can't get mad in the ring. In a street fight I could go crazy, but I just can't get mad in the ring."

Sullivan, every bit the gentleman grinned and said: "You sure take a good punch."

And that was the fight in a nut shell.

Sullivan knocked LaBua down in the fifth round with a sharp right to the jaw. LaBua bobbed right back up, but had to take an automatic 8-count.

The handsome youngster from East Meadow, N. Y., took every punch. He would throw a few counter punches, then clinch.

"It was the clinches that bothered me," said Sullivan, who thought he won comfortably. "I took it easy the first two rounds. Then my trainer told me to go out and throw leather. So I threw leather. But he clinched too much. I couldn't get at him."

LaBua Loses Close Decision To Sullivan

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—"I say, old chap, sorry about that eye, but look at my nose."

"The eye's OK, won't need any stitches. I'm sorry about your nose."

That's dressing room—not drawing room—chitchat between England's John L. Sullivan, the victor on a split decision, and Jackie LaBua, the gracious loser, shortly after they had battered each other for 10 slug-and-clinch rounds in a televised fight last night.

LaBua had dropped into Sullivan's dressing room to pay his respects.

"I just couldn't get started," remarked LaBua. "I was ashamed of myself. I didn't feel like I should have been in there at all. Y'know I just can't get mad in the ring. In a street fight I could go crazy, but I just can't get mad in the ring."

Sullivan, every bit the gentleman grinned and said: "You sure take a good punch."

And that was the fight in a nutshell.

Sullivan knocked LaBua down in the fifth round with a sharp right to the jaw. LaBua bobbed right back up, but had to take an automatic 8-count.

The handsome youngster from East Meadow, N. Y., took every punch. He would throw a few counter punches, then clinch.

"It was the clinches that bothered me," said Sullivan, who thought he won comfortably. "I took it easy the first two rounds. Then my trainer told me to go out and throw leather. So I threw leather. But he clinched too much. I couldn't get at him."

"ITS SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD."

Middletown '5' Rolls Toward Another Title

Tournament Play Sees Pair Of Top Ten Teams Clipped From Running

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Middletown's mighty Middies, five-time Ohio Class A high school basketball champions, edged a notch nearer their sixth Wednesday night with a 61-51 victory over Dayton Chaminade in the district tourney semi-finals at Dayton.

Only the winner of tonight's Dayton Roosevelt (13-5) vs. Dayton Fairmont (7-10) game stands between Paul Walker's powerhouse, the state's top-rated quintet, and a berth in the Cincinnati regional play next week.

The Class A action was limited Wednesday night, the only other contest being Martins Ferry's 67-65 win over East Liverpool in the Eastern District.

The Class B squads offered plenty of turmoil however, featured by defending champion Lockland Wayne's 47-46 triumph over Williamsburg to give Joe Martin's boys a 14-10 season record.

Two of the top 10 teams in the final Associated Press Class B poll were dumped from the running, but each lost to a formidable foe. Fifth-place Strasburg, which had a 21-1 record, was ousted 84-63 by Yorkville (22-3) as 6-5 Henry Josefczyk poured in 33 points to boost his 25-game scoring total to 1026—an average of 41 per game. All of Yorkville's losses were to Class A quintets.

The other top-ranked victim was Berne-Union, which had been in sixth place with a 21-1 mark. Fredericktown, running its record to 23-1, edged Berne Union from further play by 90-79.

Capt. Ronnie Godfrey, with a last minute free throw, clinched the Martins Ferry win over East Liverpool. Godfrey scored 16 points to run his 21-game output to 644, an average of 30, eclipsing the school scoring record of 628 set by All-America Alex Groza.

Wednesday night's competition cut the starting field of 328 Class A squads to 45, and the 724 Class B teams to 44. Nine of the Class A top 10, and seven in Class B, are still in the running.

Of the 45 class A teams, five are unbeaten, three have lost once, and five have only two losses.

The unbeaten list in Class A: Canton South 21-0, Akron South and Middletown 20-0, and Cleveland East Tech and St. Marys Memorial 19-0.

Unbeaten in Class B are Glenford 26-0, Sulphur Springs 25-0, and South Zanesville and Willshire 23-0.

Class B has no games scheduled tonight, but Class A offers action on six fronts.

Eight of the Class A survivors—Hamilton, Middletown, Columbus East, Newark, Martins Ferry, Dayton Roosevelt, Portsmouth and Lorain—have won 16 of the 33 championships since the tourney was launched in 1923. Of the Class B teams still in the race, Lockland Wayne has won twice, and Miller City, Yorkville and Glenford once each.

Cubs Lose, 50-47, In Tourney Final

The WHS Lion Cubs lost out by a hairsbreadth in their bid for the championship of the Chillicothe Junior high cage tourney Wednesday night as they dropped a 50-47 decision to Mt. Logan.

The tourney finale was nip-and-tuck all the way. Neither team was ever more than six points out in front.

The Washington C. H. boys hit their first and only stumbling block it. the tourney as they ran up against Mt. Logan's solid zone defense.

Held away from the inside, they had to rely on more set shots from the outside than they have been used to making — and that spelled the difference.

ALSO SLOWING down the Cub's attack was a threatening total of four fouls chalked up against two of the boys early in the game.

By the end of the first quarter, Ron Carter had three fouls scored against him and Buddy Lynch, four. Lynch picked up his fifth foul and went out of the game early in the third period.

Carter went on to take scoring honors for his team with 21 points on 7 foul shots and 7 field goals.

Mt. Logan's Williamson was high for both teams with a 30 - point total on 9 field goals and 12 free throws.

Their win gave the Mt. Logan boys a perfect 19-0 record for the season.

The Cubs ended their season with 15-4 tally. Commented the coach, Fred Domenico, "They're a great group of boys."

Tebbetts Pleased With Lawrence

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—There was a gleam of joy in Cincinnati Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbetts' eye today as he reported that pitcher Brooks Lawrence "looked like money in the bank to me."

That was his verdict after Lwrence's showing in an intra-squad game. Lawrence, who had a fine year for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1954, was shipped back to the minors after a dismal start last year. Then the Reds obtained him during the winter in a trade for Jackie Collum.

Avila Ends His Holdout Stint

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Bobby Avila, the holdout artist from Vera Cruz, Mexico, finally came to terms with the Cleveland Indians and will report for spring training "immediately."

"Immediately," in Avila's language, may take all week.

He and General Manager Hank Greenberg agreed last night to about $25,000.

It was the third straight year Bobby has campaigned for more dough with success. Last season he didn't report to camp until March 21.

Defiance Stars Pace Mid-Am Team

COLUMBUS (AP) Defiance College, Mid-Ohio League champions, have landed two players on the loop's all-star 1955-56 basketball team picked by coaches and sports writers.

The Yellow Jackets, who dominated the Mid-Ohio with an 11-1 record, placed senior Bill Pace and soph Joe Hockenberry on the all-star team.

Jack Harner of Wilmington, Dick Barr of Findlay and Jack Purtell of Ashland rounded out the team.

The leaders had a tough time nosing out Glenn Smith of Ohio Northern, Lee Himmeger of Findlay and Roger Eicher of Defiance.

Warriors Grab Pro Division Title

BOSTON (AP)—The Philadelphia Warriors have completed their surge from the bottom of the eastern division of the National Basketball Assn., locking up their first division title since the 1950-51 season.

They did it with authority last night, belting the New York Knickerbockers 108-97 on a doubleheader card that also saw the Celtics sew up second place in the division with a 111-98 decision over Syracuse.

The defeats left the Knicks and Nationals still in a virtual deadlock for the third and final playoff spot in the eastern with Syracuse holding a half-game edge.

Duke University passed up the IC4A track championship meet because on the previous night the team competed in the Atlantic Coast Conference indoor championships.

Cadillac

At Home... Among Strangers !

You're going to get a wonderful thrill when you take the wheel of your first Cadillac and head out into the country—a long, long way from home.

We're not just talking about the car's wonderful performance and its extraordinary riding and handling ease—satisfying and inspiring though these are bound to be.

No, we're talking about something more.

We're talking about the friendliness you're going to encounter—how you'll be driving among people who seem to know something about you, and who are ready to trust and respect you as if they had known you for a long, long time.

This is true, of course, because Cadillac quality and goodness have made it the overwhelming preference of people of judgment and discrimination—and the whole world has come to know and understand this and to appreciate what it means.

Yes, your best foot is forward when it rests on the throttle of a 1956 Cadillac.

This great personal benefit is strictly a plus value when you take the title of the "car of cars." It comes in addition to the long-known Cadillac virtues: matchless beauty and luxury and comfort, and safety and long life.

Why not consider a Cadillac for your next car?

It is a logical choice—not only for quality and goodness and prestige—but for economy of ownership and operation as well.

We suggest that you come in soon and see for yourself. We'll be happy to give you a personal demonstration at the wheel . . . and to explain why this is such a wonderful time to make the move from every standpoint.

Middletown '5' Rolls Toward Another Title

Tournament Play Sees Pair Of Top Ten Teams Clipped From Running

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Middletown's mighty Middies, five-time Ohio Class A high school basketball champions, edged a notch nearer their sixth Wednesday night with a 61-51 victory over Dayton Chaminade in the district tourney semi-finals at Dayton.

Only the winner of tonight's Dayton Roosevelt (13-5) vs. Dayton Fairmont (7-10) game stands between Paul Walker's powerhouse, the state's top-rated quintet, and a berth in the Cincinnati regional play next week.

The Class A action was limited Wednesday night, the only other contest being Martins Ferry's 67-65 win over East Liverpool in the Eastern District.

The Class B squads offered plenty of turmoil however, featured by defending champion Lockland Wayne's 47-46 triumph over Williamsburg to give Joe Martin's boys a 14-10 season record.

Two of the top 10 teams in the final Associated Press Class B poll were dumped from the running, but each lost to a formidable foe. Fifth-place Strasburg, which had a 21-1 record, was ousted 84-63 by Yorkville (22-3) as 6-5 Henry Josefczyk poured in 33 points to boost his 25-game scoring total to 1026—an average of 41 per game. All of Yorkville's losses were to Class A quintets.

The other top-ranked victim was Berne-Union, which had been in sixth place with a 21-1 mark. Fredericktown, running its record to 23-1, edged Berne Union from further play by 90-79.

Capt. Ronnie Godfrey, with a last minute free throw, clinched the Martins Ferry win over East Liverpool. Godfrey scored 16 points to run his 21-game output to 644, an average of 30, eclipsing the school scoring record of 628 set by All-America Alex Groza.

Wednesday night's competition cut the starting field of 328 Class A squads to 45, and the 724 Class B teams to 44. Nine of the Class A top 10, and seven in Class B, are still in the running.

Of the 45 class A teams, five are unbeaten, three have lost once, and five have only two losses.

The unbeaten list in Class A: Canton South 21-0, Akron South and Middletown 20-0, and Cleveland East Tech and St. Marys Memorial 19-0.

Unbeaten in Class B are Glenford 26-0, Sulphur Springs 25-0, and South Zanesville and Willshire 23-0.

Class B has no games scheduled tonight, but Class A offers action on six fronts.

Eight of the Class A survivors—Hamilton, Middletown, Columbus East, Newark, Martins Ferry, Dayton Roosevelt, Portsmouth and Lorain—have won 16 of the 33 championships since the tourney was launched in 1923. Of the Class B teams still in the race, Lockland Wayne has won twice, and Miller City, Yorkville and Glenford once each.

Cubs Lose, 50-47, In Tourney Final

The WHS Lion Cubs lost out by a hairsbreadth in their bid for the championship of the Chillicothe Junior high cage tourney Wednesday night as they dropped a 50-47 decision to Mt. Logan.

The tourney finale was nip-and-tuck all the way. Neither team was ever more than six points out in front.

The Washington C. H. boys hit their first and only stumbling block it the tourney as they ran up against Mt. Logan's solid zone defense.

Held away from the inside, they had to rely on more set shots from the outside than they have been used to making — and that spelled the difference.

ALSO SLOWING down the Cub's attack was a threatening total of four fouls chalked up against two of the boys early in the game.

By the end of the first quarter, Ron Carter had three fouls scored against him and Buddy Lynch, four. Lynch picked up his fifth foul and went out of the game early in the third period.

Carter went on to take scoring honors for his team with 21 points on 7 foul shots and 7 field goals.

Mt. Logan's Williamson was high for both teams with a 30 - point total on 9 field goals and 12 free throws.

Their win gave the Mt. Logan boys a perfect 19-0 record for the season.

The Cubs ended their season with 15-4 tally. Commented the coach, Fred Domenico, "They're a great group of boys."

Tebbetts Pleased With Lawrence

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—There was a gleam of joy in Cincinnati Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbetts' eye today as he reported that pitcher Brooks Lawrence "looked like money in the bank to me."

That was his verdict after Lwrence's showing in an intra-squad game. Lawrence, who had a fine year for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1954, was shipped back to the minors after a dismal start last year. Then the Reds obtained him during the winter in a trade for Jackie Collum.

Avila Ends His Holdout Stint

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Bobby Avila, the holdout artist from Vera Cruz, Mexico, finally came to terms with the Cleveland Indians and will report for spring training "immediately."

"Immediately," in Avila's language, may take all week.

He and General Manager Hank Greenberg agreed last night to about $25,000.

It was the third straight year Bobby has campaigned for more dough with success. Last season he didn't report to camp until March 21.

Defiance Stars Pace Mid-Am Team

COLUMBUS (AP) Defiance College, Mid-Ohio League champions, have landed two players on the loop's all-star 1955-56 basketball team picked by coaches and sports writers.

The Yellow Jackets, who dominated the Mid-Ohio with an 11-1 record, placed senior Bill Pace and soph Joe Hockenberry on the all-star team.

Jack Harner of Wilmington, Dick Barr of Findlay and Jack Purtell of Ashland rounded out the team.

The leaders had a tough time nosing out Glenn Smith of Ohio Northern, Lee Himmeger of Findlay and Roger Eicher of Defiance.

Ten new cars are under construction for the 500-mile automobile race at Indianapolis Speedway on Memorial Day.

Warriors Grab Pro Division Title

BOSTON (AP)—The Philadelphia Warriors have completed their surge from the bottom of the eastern division of the National Basketball Assn., locking up their first division title since the 1950-51 season.

They did it with authority last night, belting the New York Knickerbockers 108-97 on a doubleheader card that also saw the Celtics sew up second place in the division with a 111-98 decision over Syracuse.

The defeats left the Knicks and Nationals still in a virtual deadlock for the third and final playoff spot in the eastern with Syracuse holding a half-game edge.

Duke University passed up the IC4A track championship meet because on the previous night the team competed in the Atlantic Coast Conference indoor championships.

Cadillac

At Home... Among Strangers!

You're going to get a wonderful thrill when you take the wheel of your first Cadillac and head out into the country—a long, long way from home.

We're not just talking about the car's wonderful performance and its extraordinary riding and handling ease—satisfying and inspiring though these are bound to be.

No, we're talking about something more.

We're talking about the friendliness you're going to encounter—how you'll be driving among people who seem to know something about you, and who are ready to trust and respect you as if they had known you for a long, long time.

This is true, of course, because Cadillac quality and goodness have made it the overwhelming preference of people of judgment and discrimination—and the whole world has come to know and understand this and to appreciate what it means.

Yes, your best foot is forward when it rests on the throttle of a 1956 Cadillac.

This great personal benefit is strictly a plus value when you take the title of the "car of cars." It comes in addition to the long-known Cadillac virtues: matchless beauty and luxury and comfort, and safety and long life.

Why not consider a Cadillac for your next car?

It is a logical choice—not only for quality and goodness and prestige—but for economy of ownership and operation as well.

We suggest that you come in soon and see for yourself. We'll be happy to give you a personal demonstration at the wheel . . . and to explain why this is such a wonderful time to make the move from every standpoint.

Yesterday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

Q N X C P J X Y C N X G X K F M J M S X N G T N L E L K M L G H Y P D X C N N C Y Q X - J X Y P M V P D X H N C P P H N X — F H T A - X Y G .

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: BETTER ARE THOSE THINGS WHICH ARE FINISHED BY NATURE, THAN THOSE FINISHED BY ART—CICERO.

Yesterday's Answer

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

Shepherds Club Elects Officers at Banquet

Nearly 250 persons turned out Wednesday night for the 15th annual Fayette County Shepherds Club Banquet.

Highlights of the meeting included election of G. B. Vance as president of the club and a talk by Professor H. R. Cotterman, a sheep farmer and the head of the teacher training program at Capital University.

Prof. Cotterman raised the question of "What Do We Need in Agriculture?" and answered it with several humorous but perhaps needed changes. Among these remedies in agriculture, he included a balanced ear of corn, perennial wheat, a beef cow that gives Jersey milk, and a skunk with sweet perfume.

G. B. Vance, president of the Shepherds Club, awarded plaques to the Fayette County winners in the Ohio ewe production flock record.

In the 50 to 100 ewe class, Lawrence Newbrey was the winner. His lamb and wool sales per ewe exposed amounted to $32.26 including the incentive wool payment. Newbrey has a flock of 90 ewes.

In the 100 and up ewe class, the winner was Robert Morris. Morris had 204 ewes exposed with lamb and wool sales per ewe amounting to $24.12.

Walter Thompson, chairman of the nominating committee, was in charge of the election of directors and officers.

Elected for two-year terms were G. B. Vance, president; Homer Morrow, vice president; Edwin Buck, secretary; Elmer Haymaker, assistant secretary; Homer Wilson, treasurer; Edwin Buck, director Concord Township, Delbert Morris, in Greene township, Leonard Allen in Jefferson, Alvin Sexton in Paint and Walter Thompson in Union.

Directors who still have one year remaining to serve are A. R. Rankin, Jasper Township, Homer L. Wilson, Madison; Willard Bitzer, Marion; Eldon Marshall, Perry, and G. B. Vance, Washington C. H. Glen Whittington was named as a director in Wayne Township to serve for the next year.

A SUMMARY of the lamb pools held last year was submitted by George L. Kuhlwein of the Producers Livestock Cooperative Association. With the exception of about two pools, he said, top prices paid compared favorably with last year's top prices.

Kuhlwein said that due to the extremely hot summer, heavy runs of lambs came on to the market, depressing the lamb price.

The average selling price of all lambs pooled for this year was $20.70, compared with $21.24 last year. Average return per pool lamb was $18.55 sold as compared with $18.70 last year. Kuhlwein concluded by saying that their aren't many segments of the Agriculture industry which can boast of such nearly comparable prices.

Prof. Cotterman stated that we are now using about 400 out of the 1,500 plants that are growing or are in existence in this world. He said that he felt sure that a number of valuable usages will be forthcoming from the nearly 14,600 which are still classified as having no value to man. Cotterman also drew analogies with the shepherds attending the banquet to The Shepherd stated in the Bible.

G. B. Vance acted as toast master and introduced several guests.

They included C. L. Hunter, president of the Ohio Wool Growers, Malcolm Turner, president of the Ohio Sheep Improvement Association; Dr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Ohio State University's animal science department; Jack Judy, shepherd at Ohio State University and Bob Dennis of the Ohio Wool Growers Association. Vance also introduced 30 of the 4-H FFA and Junior Shepherds Club members in attendance.

Phil Grover, Associate County Agent, gave the invocation.

Shepherds Club Elects Officers at Banquet

Nearly 250 persons turned out Wednesday night for the 15th annual Fayette County Shepherds Club Banquet.

Highlights of the meeting included election of G. B. Vance as president of the club and a talk by Professor H. R. Cotterman, a sheep farmer and the head of the sheep training program at Capital University.

Prof. Cotterman raised the question of "What Do We Need in Agriculture?" and answered it with several humorous but perhaps needed changes. Among these remedies in agriculture, he included a balanced ear of corn, perennial wheat, a beef cow that gives Jersey milk, and a skunk with sweet perfume.

G. B. Vance, president of the Shepherds Club, awarded plaques to the Fayette County winners in the Ohio ewe production flock record.

In the 50 to 100 ewe class, Lawrence Newbrey was the winner. His lamb and wool sales per ewe exposed amounted to $32.26 including the incentive wool payment. Newbrey has a flock of 90 ewes.

In the 100 and up ewe class, the winner was Robert Morris. Morris had 204 ewes exposed with lamb and wool sales per ewe amounting to $24.12.

Walter Thompson, chairman of the nominating committee, was in charge of the election of directors and officers.

Elected for two-year terms were G. B. Vance, president; Homer Morrow, vice president; Edwin Buck, secretary; Elmer Haymaker, assistant secretary; Homer Wilson, treasurer; Edwin Buck, director Concord Township, Delbert Morris, in Greene township, Leonard Allen in Jefferson, Alvin Sexton in Paint and Walter Thompson in Union.

Directors who still have one year remaining to serve are A. R. Rankin, Jasper Township, Homer L. Wilson, Madison; Willard Bitzer, Marion; Eldon Marshall, Perry, and G. B. Vance, Washington C. H. Glen Whittington was named as a director in Wayne Township to serve for the next year.

A SUMMARY of the lamb pools held last year was submitted by George L. Kuhlwein of the Producers Livestock Cooperative Association. With the exception of about two pools, he said, top prices paid compared favorably with last year's top prices.

Kuhlwein said that due to the extremely hot summer, heavy runs of lambs came on to the market, depressing the lamb price.

The average selling price of all lambs pooled for this year was $20.70, compared with $21.24 last year. Average return per pool lamb was $18.55 sold as compared with $18.70 last year. Kuhlwein concluded by saying that their aren't many segments of the Agriculture industry which can boast of such nearly comparable prices.

Prof. Cotterman stated that we are now using about 400 out of the 1,500 plants that are growing or are in existence in this world. He said that he felt sure that a number of valuable usages will be forthcoming from the nearly 14,600 which are still classified as having no value to man. Cotterman also drew analogies with the shepherds attending the banquet to The Shepherd stated in the Bible.

G. B. Vance acted as toast master and introduced several guests.

They included C. L. Hunter, president of the Ohio Wool Growers, Malcolm Turner, president of the Ohio Sheep Improvement Association; Dr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Ohio State University's animal science department; Jack Judy, shepherd at Ohio State University and Bob Dennis of the Ohio Wool Growers Association. Vance also introduced 30 of the 4-H FFA and Junior Shepherds Club members in attendance.

Phil Grover, Associate County Agent, gave the invocation.
